History

Remembering the burdens and obstacles he encountered on his own journey to the priesthood, orphanage founder Monsignor John Joseph Jessing, a German immigrant and priest, wanted to give boys who were without financial means a way to answer their calling to the priesthood. In September 1888, he accepted 23 young men, and the College Josephinum, named for his patron, Saint Joseph, was established. On December 12, 1892, Pope Leo XIII granted pontifical status to the college, recognizing the growing importance the American continent held for the continuing spread of the gospel. From its original campus on East Main Street in downtown Columbus, the Pontifical College Josephinum moved to its present location on North High Street in 1931.

The present catalog is not to be considered a contract between the Pontifical College Josephinum and the seminarian. The Josephinum reserves the right, at its discretion, to make changes in its educational, formational, or financial policies, as dictated by changing circumstances.
MISSION STATEMENT

The Pontifical College Josephinum is a Roman Catholic seminary whose mission is to provide initial formation to men so that they can participate in the ministerial priesthood of Jesus Christ, “Head and Shepherd, Servant and Spouse.” The seminary prepares men for the ordained priesthood in the Propaedeutic, Discipleship, and Configuration Stages, integrating the human, spiritual, intellectual, and pastoral dimensions of formation. At the service of integral formation are two schools: the College of Liberal Arts and the School of Theology.

The Josephinum is a pontifical institution immediately subject to the Holy See, through the Apostolic Nuncio, and governed by the Board of Trustees. Its programs follow the norms established by the Code of Canon Law, the Congregation for the Clergy, and the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops. As a pontifical seminary, the Josephinum assists seminarians in developing their unity and love for the Holy Father and the Holy See.

Continuing the vision of its founder, Msgr. Joseph Jessing, the Josephinum seeks to prepare holy, generous, adaptable, and resilient priests for the 21st century and to serve the pastoral needs of the Church. In fidelity to this vision, the Josephinum provides resources to prepare candidates for the priesthood and the diaconate, enabling them to respond to the particular needs of their local communities. The Josephinum shares its resources with the Church by promoting vocations and offering ongoing formation to clergy and education to the laity.

Approved by the Board of Trustees, February 22, 2022.
Overview

PROLOGUE

The Pontifical College Josephinum was established in 1888 to prepare men for the priesthood. Many things have changed dramatically since the Josephinum was founded, but what remains constant is the need for disciplined, faithful, loving men to serve the Church as priests in the United States of America and around the world. The Josephinum continues to respond to that need in its commitment to form holy, generous, adaptable, and resilient priests for the 21st century.

Attentive to the guidance and example of the Holy Father, the Josephinum continues to refine its formation program to encourage the growth of its seminarians, especially toward full human maturation, spiritual depth, intellectual development, and the pastoral skills that will enable them to communicate the gospel effectively to the world today. These are the four dimensions of formation (human, spiritual, intellectual, and pastoral), the cultivation of which is the work of this and every seminary. The following pages outline the programs and policies which the Josephinum implements in striving to actualize this cultivation.

VISION AND PURPOSE

The Josephinum was granted pontifical status in 1892, and is the only seminary to be thus honored outside of Italy. The papal representative to the United States, the Apostolic Nuncio, serves ex officio as the Josephinum’s Chancellor and confirms all faculty appointments. In the broad mission of the institution, the Josephinum has educated candidates for faithful service in the ordained ministry for many dioceses in the United States and abroad, as well as for religious orders and secular institutes. Conscious of the current needs of the Church in the United States, the Josephinum is particularly mindful of the need for men to serve Spanish-speaking Catholics. Beginning with a primary attention to ministry to German immigrants, the Josephinum has grown into an institution with a significant international emphasis; men from around the world have been prepared for ministry either in the United States or in their native countries. Deeply rooted in the tradition of the universal Church, the comprehensive program of priestly formation is built on the foundation of the four dimensions of formation – human, spiritual, intellectual and pastoral – and has been developed for pastoral service in an increasingly global and diverse society, while affording access to the perennial treasures of the Catholic Church’s scholarship, liturgy and history.

Conscious of the pressing need to prepare men for service in the new evangelization, which Pope Saint John Paul II and his successors declared to be vital to the mission of the Church at the beginning of the 21st century, the Josephinum faithfully applies the norms for seminary education under the ultimate oversight of the Congregation for Clergy. This education is adapted to the different makeup and needs of its diverse seminarian body in the College of Liberal Arts and the School of Theology.

The College of Liberal Arts serves the Discipleship Stage of formation. The College fosters in seminarians an ever-deeper appreciation of the dignity of the human person in light of the mystery of Jesus Christ. Preparing men to respond more completely to the universal call to holiness and for more effective participation in the new evangelization, the College accentuates the role of Christ-like love, mature freedom, informed conscience, and honest dialogue in all dimensions of formation. As a school of liberal arts, guided by the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops’ Program of Priestly Formation (6th ed.), the College equips seminarians to exercise competent Christian responsiveness in dialogue with contemporary culture. Its programs cultivate in the seminarian a love of learning and the desire for God, as well as a striving for wisdom founded in certitude of truth and animated by an intelligence taken to heart.

The School of Theology serves the Configuration Stage of formation and has as its principal objective to provide an integral theological education, with a pastoral emphasis, which will prepare seminarians to undertake priestly ministry with skill and pastoral sensitivity, as outlined in the Program of Priestly Formation (6th ed.). The Josephinum’s School of Theology helps seminarians acquire a particularly broad set of skills as it presupposes, and builds upon, the foundation gained through either a college seminary or a pre-theology program. Academic and pastoral preparation are united in a formation program that assists seminarians in developing a priestly identity, fostering human and spiritual growth, and developing a capacity for leadership in the contemporary Church.
INTRODUCTION

The College of Liberal Arts forms seminarians within an ecclesial seminary community as they discern a call to the Roman Catholic priesthood (diocesan or religious) at the Discipleship Stage. Seminarians are prepared within the college to continue graduate-level theological education in a School of Theology at the Configuration Stage of formation. Recognizing that seminarians come from different backgrounds, cultures and experiences, our College program fosters in seminarians an ever-deepening appreciation of the dignity of the human person in light of the mystery of Jesus Christ. It prepares them to respond to the universal call to holiness and to participate in multiple dimensions of pastoral ministry in the Discipleship Stage of seminary formation. The College accentuates the role of Christ-like discipleship, love, mature freedom, informed conscience and an open and honest dialogue in all dimensions of formation: human, intellectual, pastoral and spiritual.

As a school of liberal arts, guided by the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops’ Program of Priestly Formation (6th ed.), the College equips seminarians to exercise competent Christian responsiveness in pastoral dialogue with contemporary culture. Its programs first cultivate in the seminarian a love of learning and the desire for God, a striving for wisdom founded in certitude of truth and animated by an intelligence of the heart. This is closely followed by teaching and demonstrating the application of acquired knowledge, challenging the seminarian to begin living, now, an authentic life in Christ as “doers of the word, not hearers only” (James 1:22).

Young men entering College seminary today have been challenged by a contemporary society that often rejects the way of Christ and the Catholic Church. Thus our program is tailored to help each seminarian begin, perhaps for the first time in his life, a transformative process whereby he may encounter Christ on a more personal and intimate level, reminding him: “Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewal of your mind, that by testing you may discern what is the will of God, what is good and acceptable and perfect” (Romans 12:2).

Once a man is admitted to the College of Liberal Arts, a priest will work with him as an external formator according to the policies and criteria outlined in the Seminarian Handbook. Ongoing dialogue with bishops or religious superiors and directors of vocation takes place throughout the year to provide timely communication on seminarian progress and/or potential issues. All seminarians undergo an annual evaluation, which includes initial goals, and self, peer, and faculty evaluations. Additional information is sought also from teaching faculty and seminary staff, supervisors of apostolic work locations (e.g. soup kitchens, social service outreach locations, parishes, and schools), and others deemed appropriate. Seminarians are not advanced to the next stage of formation unless positive indicators are identified during this integrated evaluation process. The evaluation is shared also with the candidate’s bishop or religious superior, and director of vocations.

INTELLECTUAL FORMATION IN THE COLLEGE OF LIBERAL ARTS

The intellectual formation provided in the College of Liberal Arts prepares seminarians to open their minds to the mystery of Christ by introducing them to the mystery of salvation and making them aware of the great human questions. The program instills in the seminarians the capacity for reflective awareness leading to an intelligence of the heart and a “certainty of truth.” The program provides an environment where seminarians receive wisdom as a gift which leads them to a greater understanding of the harmonious relationship between faith and reason. Through study and discernment, seminarians come to a deeper appreciation of the dignity of the human person and are able to enter into dialogue with the men and women of our time.

The purpose of intellectual formation is for the seminarian to grasp the Catholic intellectual tradition, to be able to proclaim and teach the Gospel of Christ, to communicate effectively the mystery of God to people of today, and to be equipped for the continuing pursuit of truth.

The commitment to study, which takes up no small part of the time of those preparing for the priesthood, is not in fact an external and secondary dimension of their human, Christian, spiritual, and vocational growth. In reality, through study, especially the study of philosophy and theology, the future priest assembles the Word of God, grows in his spiritual life, and prepares himself to fulfill his pastoral ministry.

Instruments of Intellectual Formation

The priestly formation program in the College of Liberal Arts unifies and integrates the goals of intellectual formation in the program of the seminary. The primary instrument of intellectual formation in the College of Liberal Arts is academic curriculum designed specifically for each stage of formation (See the curriculum plans displayed in this document.)
Goals and Objectives

The priestly formation program prepares seminarians for theological studies, ordained ministry, and ongoing formation after ordination. In order to achieve this end, the intellectual formation program of the College of Liberal Arts is oriented to the following goals and objectives:

Goal 1: Intellectual formation will work harmoniously toward opening more and more the minds of the seminarians to the mystery of Christ.

- Objective 1: Seminarians will be engaged in the mystery of salvation from the initiation of their ecclesial studies.
- Objective 2: Seminarians will acquire a sense of the great human questions as expressed in literature, experienced within history and creation, and contemplated in philosophy.
- Objective 3: Seminarians will develop a reflective awareness leading to a "certainty of truth" as the basis for giving oneself to Christ and His Church.
- Objective 4: Seminarians will cultivate an intelligence of the heart which knows how to “look beyond” a purely abstract approach to knowledge.

Goal 2: Seminarians will acquire wisdom as the perfection of the intellectual nature of the human person.

- Objective 1: Seminarians will participate in a rigorous program of intellectual formation.
- Objective 2: Seminarians will learn the liberal arts, especially the philosophical disciplines, in such a way that they will be prepared for dialogue with the men and women of our time.
- Objective 3: Seminarians will learn philosophy in such a way that they will develop a loving veneration of the truth as gift.
- Objective 4: Seminarians will study the historical and literary development of western culture with some exposure to non-western culture.
- Objective 5: Seminarians will learn to understand and use the sources of the sciences and documents of the Church, including biblical and patristic literature.
- Objective 6: Seminarians will develop an understanding of the harmonious relationship between faith and reason, as they work increasingly to open their minds to the mystery of Christ who “fully reveals man to man himself.”

Goal 3: Seminarians will develop an appreciation for the dignity of the human person as rooted in the call to communion with God.

- Objective 1: Seminarians will develop a proper sense of authentic freedom.
- Objective 2: Seminarians will gain an understanding of the human sciences and cultural roots of their faith through the study of the humanities.
- Objective 3: Seminarians will develop a capacity to communicate.
- Objective 4: Seminarians will be taught the necessity and the method of attentive pastoral dialogue.
- Objective 5: Seminarians will acquire the knowledge to appreciate and participate in the diverse cultures the Church serves in the United States of America, with special emphasis on Hispanic spirituality and religious customs.
GENERAL EDUCATION PROGRAM DESCRIPTION AND GOALS

The PCJ General Education Program fosters knowledge, skills, and attitudes appropriate to both the Propaedeutic and the Disciple-ship Stages of seminary formation. Integral to a traditional liberal arts education, the General Education Program provides the foundation for success in the major courses of study within the College of Liberal Arts while it satisfies the requirements of both the Ratio Fundamentalis Institutionis Sacerdotalis (2016) and the Program of Priestly Formation, Sixth Edition (2022).

Goals of the PCJ General Education Program:

The General Education Program within the PCJ College of Liberal Arts has three primary goals, each of which has three ancillary objectives:

(A) to promote a broad intellectual foundation which expresses the range of human learning in the sciences and in the arts

Objective 1: Students will be conversant with essential aspects of the natural world through a generalized study of natural, mathematical, and social sciences.

Objective 2: Students will deepen their appreciation of humanity through the study of history, the fine arts (especially literature), and culture (including contemporary issues).

Objective 3: Students will cultivate disciplined habits of study as a basis for a “loving veneration of the truth.”

(B) to develop the skills of clear and effective communication

Objective 1: Students will be adept at writing and speaking, using the standard diction, grammar, and mechanics of American English.

Objective 2: Students will be adept at utilizing logical, persuasive arguments in dialogue with others.

Objective 3: Students will be prepared to read, understand, and translate effectively Latin and one modern language within the expectations of the college course offerings.

(C) to integrate “truths about God and his creation that are the foundation of human civilization” in preparation for the systematic study of philosophy and theology

Objective 1: Seminarians will understanding and appreciate foundational philosophical methodology.

Objective 2: Students will be acquainted with “the richness and diversity of wisdom attained in the Catholic intellectual tradition.”

Objective 3: Students will be familiarized with the basic teachings of the Catholic faith.

The following courses have been identified by the College Faculty as part of the General Education Program. These courses, taken over a number of years, ensure that seminarians receive the liberal arts education which is the best preparation for the study of Philosophy.

General Education Program Credit/Hours Total: 49
BACHELOR OF ARTS DEGREE

The requirements for graduation with a Bachelor of Arts degree are described as follows:

- 30 required credits in philosophy
- 15 credits in electives
- 76 credits in liberal arts

The total credit hours needed for graduation is 121. Of this amount, 106 are in the core courses. Each course is three credit hours unless otherwise indicated. Seminarians may major in either philosophy or humanities.

Majors

Each seminarian is required to complete the requirements for a major in order to graduate. Seminarians should declare their major to the registrar no later than April of their sophomore year.

The College of Liberal Arts has two departments: philosophy and humanities. The latter department offers courses in literature, Spanish language and Hispanic studies, history, and Greek and Latin studies. Seminarians are required to earn at least a 2.25 overall GPA in the courses that count toward their major. Each department sets additional requirements for those seeking a major or minor in that discipline. Courses from other disciplines may be accepted as electives, with the approval of the department chair.

Requirements for a Major or Minor in Philosophy

In accordance with the provisions of the Program of Priestly Formation (6th ed.), all seminarians are required to successfully complete at least ten courses (30 credits) in philosophy. This ten course sequence constitutes a minor in philosophy. In addition to these courses required of all seminarians, philosophy majors must maintain a 2.25 cumulative GPA for courses applying to the philosophy major. Philosophy majors may also participate in the Honors’ Program. This requires seminarians to take 6 credits of philosophy electives and the Thomistic Seminar for a total of 9 of their elective credits. The Honor’s Program also requires students to maintain a minimum 3.5 cumulative GPA.

Requirements for a Major in Humanities

The Department of Humanities offers an interdisciplinary degree with combined courses in literature, Spanish language and Hispanic studies, fine arts, history, Greek, and Latin studies. It requires the successful completion of 12 credits in humanities electives with course numbers of 200 or higher. The successful completion of the humanities seminar is also required. Humanities majors must maintain a 2.25 for courses applying to that major.

Requirements for Graduation

At least 121 semester hours of academic work are required for graduation. Academic courses completed at a college other than the Josephinum, in which the final grade was “C-” or better, may be counted toward these requirements at the discretion of the academic dean. At least 30 credits (including six credits in one’s major) of these 121 credit hours must be taken at the Josephinum’s College of Liberal Arts. Additionally, a cumulative grade point average of 2.0 is required for graduation from the College of Liberal Arts. Graduation also requires a 2.25 GPA for courses applying to the major.

Exceptions

Seminarians who wish to request a minor deviation in the academic requirements (but not the total number of credits) for graduation must present a written petition to the academic dean, who will rule on the exception in consultation with the appropriate departmental faculty.

A seminarian may appeal the decision of the academic dean to the College faculty, within 30 days of the dean’s decision; the appeal must be presented in writing, and the dean must present the rationale for his decision in writing. The faculty vote on the appeal will be presented to the rector/president, who makes the final decision.

 Occasionally, seminarians who have completed a graduate degree may enroll in the College of Liberal Arts for the BA program. For such seminarians only, the College offers a BA degree in General Studies, the specific course-requirements of which are determined by the academic dean. These seminarians are required to complete 121 semester hours – including at least 30 hours taken at the Josephinum and at least 30 hours in one of the majors – but ordinarily they will be exempt from general distribution requirements. These seminarians will not be eligible for graduation with honors and will not compete for College academic awards.

Course Offerings for the College of Liberal Arts

PROP 110
Priesthood
3 hours
This seminar on priestly spirituality and character examines the true love a priest should have for the Eucharist and the desire to enter a strong relationship with God. Topics include the priest as an “alter Christus” and the call to witness Christ to the flock entrusted to him as their shepherd. This seminar presents the priest as minister of the sacraments, proclaimer of the word, teacher of the faith, and steward of the Church. Finally, it considers the aim of the priest in building up the local Church within the context of the wider Church and in inspiring his people to respond to their own call to holiness.

PROP 111
Priestly Celibacy
3 hours
This seminar examines clerical celibacy as a vocation within the Catholic priesthood by which unmarried men serve the People of God. It reviews the teaching of Christ on priestly celibacy, its history, biblical foundations, and the theology of what it means to be a Spiritual Father. The seminar analyzes various contemporary papal teachings from Pope St. Paul VI’s “On the Celibacy of the Priests” and Pope St. John Paul II’s “The Meaning of Celibacy.” Finally, it presents priestly celibacy in the light of psychology.

PROP 120 & 121
Catholic Culture and Tradition
3 hours
This two-part seminar explores the rich traditions and practices of the Catholic Church’s more than 2000 years of history. With a particular emphasis on the Liturgical Calendar, it informs beginning seminarians about the prayers, activities, rituals, sacraments, and customs of the Catholic faith. It also instructs on the topics of the hierarchy of the Church, religious arts, and devotional traditions. This seminar includes field trips to religious sites, to monasteries, and to museums of art throughout the year.

ASTRONOMY

ASTR 111

HIST 395/Spanish 395
Cultural History of Spain and Latin America
3 hours
Introduction to the cultural history of Spain and Spanish America from the voyages of Columbus in 1492 to modern day. This course focuses on the rise and fall of the Spanish Empire, the interactions that existed between Europe and Spanish America during the period of colonization, and the subsequent period of revolution and independence. In English with Spanish texts available for those who wish to read them.

HIST 398
The Gothic Enterprise
3 hours
Students are introduced to the period of history known today as Gothic. The course addresses the political and ecclesiastic circumstances in which the first Gothic cathedrals were built, how they were built and by whom, and the influences of the structures on the areas in which they were erected. The spirituality of the visual culture of the 11th-15th centuries, as well as the influences that monastic practices had on the presentation of the divine in pictorial format, will also be discussed. The goal of the course is to teach students to “read” Gothic cathedrals and to understand the historical and cultural milieu that gave rise to them.

HIST 402
Lives of the Saints
3 hours
The tradition of saints’ lives within the Catholic Church is introduced. It spans the Christian era, selecting for study examples of ‘published’ saints’ lives that have shaped the culture, the politics, and the spirit of the Church. Through this study, the seminarian will come to appreciate the complexity of saints’ lives as products of their context and will learn to recognize the meaningfulness of the ‘communion of saints’. Ancient, medieval, and modern texts will also testify to the historical development of canonization and the role of the Church hierarchy in acknowledging persons of heroic virtue.

HIST 451
Christians in Antiquity
3 hours
The cultural and social milieu in which Christianity grew from a persecuted minority to the sole sanctioned religion of the Roman empire is explored. This course seeks to place Christianity in its historical context to understand the religious sensibilities of the ancient Mediterranean, and explore the formation of Christian identity in a non-Christian world.

HIST 486
Historical Methodology and Research
3 hours
The method used in the gathering and evaluation of historical information as well as the principles used in presenting and interpreting historical data are presented. A major research paper of about twenty pages is required. The research is organized around a theme chosen by the instructor.

ITALIAN
ITAL 141
Italian I
3 hours
An introductory course emphasizing four basic skills: aural comprehension, speaking, reading, and writing. Consideration of the cultural and historic background of the areas where the language is spoken will be covered. Readings designed to introduce seminarians to Italian culture are included. The aim is to prepare seminarians to speak and comprehend Italian with some facility, and to read various kinds of texts. Emphasis is on class participation and active use of the language.

Elementary Latin I
3 hours
Seminarians are introduced to the basics of Latin pronunciation, grammar and vocabulary.

LATN 142
Elementary Latin II
3 hours
Seminarians continue their study of Latin grammar, engaging with more complex syntax and expanding vocabulary.
PHILOSOPHY

PHIL 113
Faith and Reason
3 hours
In light of Pope Saint John Paul II’s 1998 encyclical Fides et Ratio both the crucial differentiations and the harmonious relationships that exist between truth as considered by natural reason and truth as known through supernatural revelation are explored.

PHIL 114
Ancient Philosophy
3 hours
The foundations of the development of Western Philosophy as the “love of wisdom” from the Pre-Socratics to the Neo-Platonists are surveyed. Seminarians are introduced to the thematic areas of natural philosophy, metaphysics, ethics and political philosophy. Special concentration is given to the preeminent contributions of the thought of Plato and Aristotle.

PHIL 115
Logic
3 hours
This is an introductory course in the art of right reasoning through the study of Aristotelian logic which will define basic logical concepts and provide methods to analyze the validity of arguments. Themes in symbolic logic may also be introduced.

PHIL 118
Platonic Dialogues
3 hours
Concentration is given to reading select dialogues of Plato to illuminate major themes and developments in Platonic thought. The vital contributions of Plato to the perennial philosophical tradition are emphasized.

PHIL 120
Aristotelian Studies
3 hours
A systematic and comprehensive overview of the thought of the Stagirite by examining select works while illuminating the coherence of Peripatetic philosophy is provided. Aristotle's essential contributions to the perennial philosophical tradition, particularly to the thought of Saint Thomas Aquinas, are both emphasized and analyzed.

PHIL 208
Hellenistic Philosophy
3 hours
An in-depth examination of the major philosophical systems of late classical antiquity, which were prominent during the advent of Christianity (including Epicureanism, Stoicism and Skepticism) is given. Specifically investigated are the manners in which these three influential philosophical approaches offer essentially divergent, yet complementary, perspectives on both the nature of the universe and the human being.

PHIL 211
Medieval Philosophy
3 hours
The history of medieval philosophy from Saint Augustine to late medieval nominalism is surveyed. The relationship between faith and reason is emphasized. Account is taken of Christian, Jewish, and Islamic thought, and the way in which the perennial philosophical tradition passed from the ancient pagan world to the medieval Christian world is considered. Special attention is paid to Saint Thomas Aquinas and his synthesis of tradition.

PHIL 215
Philosophical Anthropology & Epistemology
3 hours
Philosophical issues regarding human identity with topics such as the human soul, its relationship to the body, free will, the nature, extent and acquisition of human knowledge, etc. are discussed. The social and spiritual nature of human beings and the nature of human reason is also covered.

PHIL 221
Philosophy of the Medieval Arabic World
3 hours
Seminarians become acquainted with the basic philosophical issues of some of the major thinkers of the Arabic world during the medieval period (i.e., al-Farabi, Avicenna, al-Ghazali, and Averroes). Such matters as the role of Aristotle in this context, the nature of philosophy and its relationship to theology, and the nature of the human intellect are addressed.

PHIL 230
Duns Scotus
3 hours
This overview of the philosophy of medieval Franciscan thinker Bl. John Duns Scotus, covers topics such as Scotus’ theory of common natures, theory of knowledge, argument for God’s existence, human language’s application to God, matter and form of natural substances, the freedom of the will, and ethics. Some attention may be given to the intellectual historical context of the period between Aquinas’ death and Scotus’ death (1274-1308).

PHIL 309
Ethics
3 hours
Concepts such as virtue, human action, the common good and the relationship between conscience and free will are examined. The natural law ethics of Saint Thomas as well as other thinkers who were influential in the development of ethical theory are also examined.
The thoughts of some of the major thinkers of this era are explored including the key issues and influential ideas of their work. Focus is on the areas of metaphysics, philosophical anthropology, political philosophy, and ethics.

PHIL 388 Aesthetics 3 hours
This course is a philosophical investigation of the nature of beauty. Seminarians are introduced to a variety of perennial themes in this field including criteria for evaluating beauty, the role of beauty in the human experience and the effects of cultural context upon this. Focus is on an analysis of essential texts of foundational thinkers ranging from Plato to Heidegger.

PHIL 390 Pope Saint John Paul II – Philosophy of Person and Community 3 hours
Seminarians are given a philosophical reflection aimed at understanding the human person in the order of love, based on the teaching of Pope Saint John Paul II. The structure of the person, which also disposes him to the gift of self and the life in community (communion of persons) is analyzed. The main sources for this course are Wojtyla's Person and Act and Love and Responsibility.

PHIL 391 Philosophy of Language 3 hours
Contemporary themes in philosophy of language such as sense and reference, theories of meaning (semantics), pragmatics and the nature of speech acts, ordinary language philosophy, language as expression and the poetic use of language (metaphor) are considered. Key thinkers such as Russell, Wittgenstein, Austin and Taylor are considered. This takes place in dialogue with earlier notions of language and with contemporary developments in linguistics.

PHIL 401 Metaphysics 3 hours
The nature of metaphysical inquiry (the study of being as being), the fundamental principles of reality (act/potency and existence/essence) and the transcendental properties of being (unity, truth, goodness and beauty) are examined.

PHIL 402 The Philosophy of Edith Stein 3 hours
Seminarians are introduced to the philosophy of St. Edith Stein, a thinker of striking breadth and originality. The course will consider her beginnings as a phenomenologist under Edmund Husserl, her work as an educator and Catholic public figure in 1920s Germany, her investigations into Thomistic metaphysics, and her philosophical forays into spiritual theology with her writings on Teresa of Avila and John of the Cross. The phenomenological and Neo-Thomistic context of her work will also be considered.

PHIL 403 Rousseau 3 hours
A study of the major works of the 18th century thinker Jean-Jacques Rousseau. Consideration is given to themes such as Rousseau’s critique of modernity from within modernity, his calling into question of some of modernity’s goals and aspirations, and human dis-integration within the self and disconnection from nature and other human beings.

PHIL 404 Medieval Proofs of God’s Existence 3 hours
A variety of medieval proofs for God’s existence, considering both their historical context and their contemporary relevance, will be investigated. Arguments covered will include Aquinas’ proofs especially, but also those of such figures as Moses Maimonides, Bonaventure, and Francisco Suarez, as well as kalam type arguments. The relationship between modern science and certain of the proofs will also be considered, particularly Aquinas’ proof for an unmoved mover.

PHIL 411 Philosophy of God 3 hours
This course treats issues concerning the existence and attributes of God as understood by human reason alone. The natural theology of Saint Thomas Aquinas is emphasized, along with that of other major thinkers such as Saint Augustine and Saint Anselm. Modern and contemporary developments, in light of their impact upon the Catholic intellectual tradition, are examined. Problems such as theodicy and atheism are studied.

PHIL 412 Existentialism 3 hours
Seminarians study and learn the basic tenets of the existentialist philosophical movement and its immediate predecessors. Focus is on the existentialists’ descriptions of the nature of the human condition and the suggested responses to that condition. To achieve this goal, the course explores the work of a number of thinkers who are representative of this tradition.

PHIL 413 Modern Atheism and the Christian Response 3 hours
Modern opposition to religion and the Christian response to it, as described in the works of such opponents as Ludwig Feuerbach, Karl Marx, Friedrich Nietzsche, and Sigmund Freud, are studied. The response to this opposition in the works of thinkers such as Soren Kierkegaard, Jacques Maritain, and Gabriel Marcel concludes the course.
PHIL 414
The Problem of Evil
3 hours
How various major thinkers in the history of philosophy have sought to deal with the problem of evil from within the contexts of their individual systems and the effect this has on their understanding of metaphysics, human nature, and ethics is addressed. The thought of Saint Thomas Aquinas is given particular attention.

PHIL 417
Philosophy of Religion
3 hours
This course offers a philosophical reflection on such topics as the relationship between faith and reason, religious language and symbolism, the nature of religious belief, the question of evil in relation to God, divine intervention in human affairs (including miracles), the nature of religious (and especially mystical) experience, and religious pluralism. Both traditional and contemporary approaches to these themes are considered.

PHIL 424
Introduction to Bioethics
3 hours
An overview of the interdisciplinary field of bioethics is given. Topics include the origins and history of bioethics, models of bioethics and their underlying principles, including Catholic perspectives, and the application of bioethics to various areas.

PHIL 451
Neoplatonic Philosophy
3 hours
This course presents a critical examination of Neoplatonic philosophy as exemplified by select writings of Plotinus and other philosophers in the neoplatonic traditions. Specifically investigated are major themes and historical developments in Platonic thought as related to its mutual interactions with contemporary Peripatetic and Stoic philosophy. Neoplatonism’s vital contributions to the perennial philosophical tradition are emphasized and analyzed.

PHIL 491
Aquinas on Moral Psychology
3 hours
This course is an investigation of Aquinas’ doctrine on the will and the passions. Attention will also be paid to how these are shaped for good or ill in acquiring virtues or vices. Some consideration will be given to human cognitive powers—the intellect and the external and internal senses—insofar as these condition the acts of the will and the passions.

PHIL 496
Thomistic Seminar
3 hours
Facets of the philosophy of Saint Thomas Aquinas and its various developments down to the present are considered. The seminar is organized around a theme or themes chosen by the professor, and may focus on aspects of the thought of Saint Thomas in dialogue with his contemporaries, the commentary tradition, 20th century Neo-Thomism or the contemporary “retrieval” of Aquinas.

PHIL 497, 498, 499
Directed Independent Study – Philosophy
3 hours
A guided reading, discussion, and research of a particular author, work, area or problem of philosophy are used to deepen a seminar’s understanding of the philosophical aspect. This course requires the approval of the academic dean.

PHYSICS

PHYS 110
Introduction to Physics
3 hours
The scientific methods of natural science are introduced through a conceptual overview of various principles of physics. Topics include selections from mechanics, thermodynamics, light and optics, waves and sound, electricity and magnetism, relativity and quantum mechanics.

PSYCHOLOGY

PSYC 120
Introduction to Clinical and Interpersonal Psychology
3 hours
An overview of the major disorders in abnormal psychology, consistent with the current diagnostic classification system, is presented. Additional pertinent topics within the fields of clinical psychology and interpersonal relations that are relevant to priestly ministry within the current cultural context are covered.

SPANISH AND SPANISH LITERATURE

SPAN 141
Elementary Spanish I
3 hours
Seminarians are introduced to elementary Spanish grammar and vocabulary in the context of oral and written communication. This requires the translation of Spanish texts for beginners.

SPAN 142
Elementary Spanish II
3 hours
The seminar’s grasp of Spanish grammar and vocabulary in the context of oral and written communication is further developed and the translation of more advanced texts is required. Increased emphasis is placed on oral communication through the performance of oral presentations.

SPAN 241
Intermediate Spanish III
3 hours
The seminar’s understanding of Spanish grammar and vocabulary in the context of oral and written communication is developed and the translation of intermediate Spanish texts is required. Increased emphasis is placed on oral communication through the use of oral presentations.

SPAN 383
Survey of Spanish-American Literature
3 hours
Seminarians receive an overview of Spanish-American literature from the colonial period through the 21st century.

SPAN 387
Survey of Spanish Peninsular Literature
3 hours
Seminarians receive an overview of Spanish Peninsular literature from the 11th through the 21st centuries. Taught in English with texts available in both English and Spanish.

SPAN 395/HIST 395
Cultural History of Spain and Latin America
3 hours
See HIST 395 for description.

SPAN 401
Church and State in Modern Spain
3 hours
Seminarians are introduced to the role of Catholicism in Spanish society from the fall of the Spanish Empire in 1898 to today. Topics covered include the relationship of the Catholic Church to the monarchy of the early 20th century, anticlericalism and the Spanish Republic, the Spanish Civil War, the Church’s role in the formation of Francisco Franco’s dictatorship, Josemaría Escrivá and Opus Dei, Vatican II in Spain, and the Church as part of the modern social-democratic constitutional monarchy.

HM 467
Advanced Pastoral Spanish
3 hours
Any student who has 9 Spanish language credits, has successfully completed the three Spanish placement tests, or is otherwise prepared to take a course that is taught entirely in Spanish and is focused on Hispanic Ministry, with advanced grammar and idiom review, translation, composition, and presentations and discussions in Spanish may take this course. Hispanic seminarians who need to refresh or perfect their grammar and learn to translate both ways may also take this course.

SPAN 480
Church and Society in Hispanic Literature
3 hours
Literary works and authors that describe the role of the Catholic Church in Hispanic society are studied. Taught in English with texts available in English and Spanish.
SPAN 483
The Pilgrimage to Santiago de Compostela
3 hours
This course surveys the history of the pilgrimage to Santiago de Compostela from its beginnings in the early Middle Ages to modern day, focusing on literary and artistic works produced on and about the pilgrimage. Students will read historical and ecclesiastic documents, poetry and short stories, as well as pilgrim diaries. All readings will be in English, with some provided in Spanish translation.

SPAN 484
Cervantes and His Time
3 hours
Seminarians study the time, life, and works of Miguel de Cervantes Saavedra. Don Quijote, the Exemplary Novels, and his Entremeses are read. Taught in English with texts available in English and Spanish.

SPAN 493
Mysticism in Spanish Literature
3 hours
Selected works by the most important Spanish mystics, preceded by an overview of mysticism in general and the history of Spain in the 16th century are studied. Seminarians become familiar with the general concept of mysticism, the historical background of some of the greatest Spanish mystics and their works. Taught in English with texts available in Spanish and English.

SPAN 497, 498, 499
Directed Independent Study – Spanish
3 hours
A guided reading, discussion and research of Spanish texts to advance a seminarian’s understanding of Spanish language and culture are given. This course requires the approval of the academic dean.

SPEECH

SPCH 148
Principles of Effective Speaking
3 hours
An introduction to the basic principles, theories and concepts of public speaking is given. Seminarians thereafter present a series of in-class public-speaking assignments.

UNDERGRADUATE THEOLOGY

UTHE 101
Salvation History and Scripture
3 hours
The seminarian is introduced to the whole history of salvation as identical with the history of the way and means by which the one true God – Father, Son, and Holy Spirit – reveals himself to men and unites with himself those who turn away from sin (CCC 234, OT 13-14). The bible is read as the primary text and a broad overview of salvation history is presented by following the historical outline in the Old and New Testaments, with particular attention given to the historical narratives of the Old Testament, the Gospels, and Acts of the Apostles, while not necessarily excluding other books. The course will not focus on exegesis, scriptural interpretation techniques or historical critical methods.

UTHE 102
Profession of Faith
3 hours
The purpose of this course is to assist the seminarian to confess his baptismal faith before men as those who belong to Christ through faith and baptism. Reading the entirety of Part I of the Catechism of the Catholic Church as the primary text, the course will expound on the nature of faith and profession of faith in the creed.

UTHE 103
Celebration of Christian Mystery
3 hours
In this course, the seminarian will learn to understand the “dispensation of the mystery” (CCC 1076) and the requirement of the faithful to believe, to celebrate, and to live this mystery in a vital and personal relationship with the living true God through prayer (CCC 2558). Reading the entirety of Part II of the Catechism of the Catholic Church as the primary text, a general knowledge of the sacramental economy and the seven sacraments of the Church will be imparted.

UTHE 104
Christian Prayer
3 hours
The documents of the Second Vatican Council are introduced, with particular emphasis on the decrees on priesthood and priestly formation, and the declaration on religious freedom. Other documents are introduced at the instructor’s discretion. This course is both foundational and introductory.

UTHE 105
Life in Christ: Catholic Moral Theology
3 hours
One’s desire for the happiness of the beatific vision and to help one understand how to obtain it through right conduct that is freely chosen, with the help of God, and that fulfills the demands of charity, is discussed. Reading the entirety of Part III of the Catechism of the Catholic Church as the primary text, the above will be accomplished by reflecting on man’s vocation to life in the Spirit and the Ten Commandments.

UTHE 106
Christian Prayer
3 hours
The seminarian will learn to understand the requirement of the faithful to believe, to celebrate, and to live this mystery in a vital and personal relationship with the living true God through prayer (CCC 2558). This will be accomplished by reading the entirety of Part IV of the Catechism of the Catholic Church as the primary text and will impart a general knowledge of Prayer in the Christian life and the Lord’s Prayer.

UTHE 498
Introduction to Vatican II Documents
3 hours
The documents of the Second Vatican Council are introduced, with particular emphasis on the decrees on priesthood and priestly formation, and the declaration on religious freedom. Other documents are introduced at the instructor’s discretion. This course is both foundational and introductory.
The School of Theology
Configuration Stage

INTRODUCTION

The School of Theology serves the Configuration Stage of seminary formation. Seminarians in the theologate already have completed the Discipleship Stage of seminary formation and therefore bring to the theologate a mature experience of formation. While discernment of a priestly vocation does not formally conclude until ordination to the diaconate, a seminarian who has completed the Discipleship Stage does enter the Configuration Stage with a commitment to prepare for ordination. He therefore embraces completely and unconditionally the expectations of the Configuration Stage.

Seminarians presented for ordination should be converted to the service of Christ, understand the tradition of the Church, and possess the attitudes and skills necessary to begin priestly ministry. The School of Theology is dedicated primarily to providing four full years of theological and ministerial formation in preparation for priestly ordination through the Master of Divinity program (MDiv). Within that context, graduate-level academic subjects provide the intellectual foundation of priestly formation and are integrated with the human, pastoral, and spiritual dimensions of the Configuration Stage.

The School of Theology offers three additional academic programs: a Master of Arts in Theology degree, a Bachelor of Sacred Theology degree (completed in affiliation with the Pontifical University of Saint Thomas Aquinas in Rome, Italy), and a Certificate in Hispanic Ministry Field Education.

INTELLECTUAL FORMATION IN THE SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY

The purpose of intellectual formation provided in the School of Theology is for the seminarian to grasp the Catholic intellectual tradition, be able to proclaim and teach the Gospel of Christ, communicate effectively the mystery of God to people of today, and be equipped for the continuing pursuit of truth.

The commitment to study, which takes up no small part of the time of those preparing for the priesthood, is not in fact an external and secondary dimension of their human, Christian, spiritual, and vocational growth. In reality, through study, especially the study of philosophy and theology, the future priest assimilates to the Word of God, grows in his spiritual life, and prepares himself to fulfill his pastoral ministry.

Goals for Intellectual Formation

Intellectual formation at the Josephinum seeks to achieve the following goals using the associated objectives to assess how effectively the outcomes have been achieved.

Goal #1
Seminarians will obtain an integral theological education.

Objectives
1a. Seminarians will demonstrate knowledge of the various theological disciplines in the curriculum.
1b. Seminarians will demonstrate an ability to articulate and present the mysteries of the Catholic faith in an understandable manner.
1c. Seminarians will demonstrate the ability to write theologically with accuracy and clarity.
1d. Seminarians will demonstrate a comprehensive and critical understanding of the Catholic Tradition appropriate to priestly ministry.

Goal #2
Seminarians will be educated to undertake priestly ministry with pastoral skill and sensitivity.

Objectives
2a. Seminarians will demonstrate effective skills for proclamation and teaching.
2b. Seminarians will demonstrate the ability to apply theological learning to pastoral situations.
MASTER OF DIVINITY AND ORDINATION

Completion of the Master of Divinity (MDiv) degree and ordination to the priesthood are the normative credentials promoted by the Josephinum's School of Theology for its seminarians. The MDiv is conferred after the successful completion of academic studies as part of the Configuration Stage.

The MDiv program is intended to prepare candidates for the Catholic priesthood and is open only to seminarians who have been accepted into the program by the rector/president of the Josephinum.

Admission requirements for the MDiv program are a Bachelor's degree or its equivalent from an accredited college; courses that include those philosophical and theological fields outlined in the Program of Priestly Formation (6th ed.), namely, 30 credit hours of philosophy that include logic, ancient, medieval, modern, and contemporary philosophy, the philosophy of human nature, epistemology, metaphysics, ethics, and the philosophy of God; and 12 credits in undergraduate theology that cover the content of the four main parts of the Catechism of the Catholic Church.

The MDiv is a first-level professional degree that is included in the Configuration Stage of formation in the School of Theology. The goals of the MDiv program are in conformity with the Program of Priestly Formation (6th ed.) and all related governing documents on priestly formation. The MDiv program strives, by means of both content and process, to enable seminarians to integrate the four fundamental dimensions of formation identified in the PPF and in Pastores Dabo Vobis: human, intellectual, pastoral, and spiritual.

By design, this vision coincides with the degree standards of the Association of Theological Schools (ATS) along with those of the Higher Learning Commission (HLC), an affiliate of the North Central Association.

While addressing the formation goals in its four dimensions, the MDiv program endeavors to provide significant structured opportunities that enable the seminarian to develop a comprehensive and critical understanding of the Catholic Tradition in its historical and contemporary cultural context.

Moreover, the MDiv program is designed to assist the seminarian to develop a capacity for priestly life and leadership in a context of ongoing personal, spiritual, and pastoral formation. Continuing programmatic and personal assessments are considered integral to the formation program in all of its components.

Course Numbering System

Letters preceding course numbers indicate the specific subject area:
- BI = Biblical Studies
- BL = Biblical Languages
- CL = Christian Living
- DO = Dogma
- HS = Historical Studies
- LS = Liturgy and Sacraments
- PA = Pastoral Theology and Evangelization

The first digit in the course number corresponds to the year of study:
- 1st Year Theology = 5
- 2nd Year Theology = 6
- 3rd Year Theology = 7
- 4th Year Theology = 8
- Elective = 9

The second digit in each course number is used to distinguish courses if more than one course in a given discipline is offered during the same semester. For example, BI 502 and BI 512 are both courses in Scripture offered in the second semester of the first year. The “0” in BI 502 indicates it is the first course offered in Scripture that semester. The “1” in BI 512 indicates it is the second course offered in Scripture in the same semester.

The third digit indicates in which semester the course is offered:
- First semester = 1
- Second semester = 2

For example, Course 501 would have “5” as the first digit meaning it is a first year Theology course, “0” would be the second number indicating it is the first course in that discipline for that semester, and the third number “1” would mean it is offered in the first semester.

The first digit in all elective course numbers is “9” followed by two additional digits.

The MDiv degree requires 116 credits. MDiv candidates take only two electives identified in the curriculum—one in each semester of fourth year. The grade of “D” is the minimum grade required to earn credit for courses in the MDiv degree program. A seminarian must maintain an overall 2.0 grade point average in order to qualify for the MDiv degree.

Additionally, the seminarian pursuing an MDiv degree must participate in:
• Human and Spiritual Formation Programs
• Pastoral Formation and Theological Reflection
• Annual Evaluation Process

Master of Divinity Competency Examinations

Description of the Competency Examinations
The Josephinum School of Theology maintains competency examinations as an essential component of the Master of Divinity Degree Program. Neither extra course work nor a written paper may substitute for these examinations.

Degree candidates are required to take oral competency examinations in order to integrate their course work in major disciplines, including sacred scripture, dogmatic theology, moral theology, and liturgy and sacraments.

Seminarians are eligible to take the competency examinations only after a cumulative grade point average of 2.0 has been attained.

Purpose of the Competency Examinations
Competency examinations are designed to promote the following two goals:
a. To certify that the candidate has a reasonable grasp and understanding of the basic tenets of Catholic theology as befits an ordained minister of the Church;
b. To foster the candidate’s ability to integrate the content of the various courses in the MDiv curriculum, with an eye to its use in pastoral settings.

Preparation for the Competency Examinations
At the beginning of the fourth year of theological study, each candidate will be presented with a study guide drawn from individual courses in the MDiv curriculum. Competency examinations are organized by the academic dean of the School of Theology, ordinarily beginning each January.

Format for the Competency Examinations
MDiv Competency Examinations consist of four oral exams in the fields of Scripture, Dogmatic Theology, Moral Theology, and Liturgy and Sacraments. Each exam is 30 minutes in duration. Questions asked during oral examinations will be derived from the study guide provided to each candidate at the beginning of the fourth year of theology.

Grading of Examinations and Required Average
Ordinarily, each of the four oral examinations is graded by a pair of examiners.

Degree candidates are required to attain a passing grade of “1.0” on each oral examination and an average grade across all competency exams of at least a “2.0” in order to qualify for the MDiv degree.

A candidate who does not receive a passing grade on any individual competency examination is required to take and pass another examination in the failed area(s) two weeks later in order to qualify for the degree. The re-take examination(s) will be arranged by the academic dean in consultation with the professors of the area(s) failed by the candidate.

Degree candidates who pass all of the competency examinations but fail to achieve the minimum average grade of “2.0” may re-take any of the competency examinations on which they received a grade below 2.0. Ordinarily, candidates are not eligible to retake the competency examinations more than once.

MASTER OF ARTS IN THEOLOGY

The Master of Arts in Theology (MA) is a first-level graduate degree, which may be taken for personal enrichment, as preparation for teaching, or as preparation for further studies. It has two primary goals: first, to provide a core, graduate-level competency in theological studies; second, to allow for a concentration in biblical studies, dogmatic theology, moral theology, or pastoral theology and evangelization. Seminarians preparing for the priesthood at the Josephinum, and therefore working towards a Master of Divinity degree may pursue the MA concurrently.

Goals for the Master of Arts in Theology

The Josephinum seeks to achieve the following goals for the Master of Arts in Theology degree, using the associated objectives to assess how effectively the outcomes have been achieved.

Goal #1

Students will obtain a first-level graduate education in theology that can be used as preparation for teaching or as preparation for further advanced graduate studies.

Objectives

1a. Students will demonstrate knowledge of key theological terms, as well as detailed knowledge in one of four specialized areas of study: biblical studies, dogmatic theology, moral theology, or pastoral theology and evangelization.
1b. Students will demonstrate analytical and/or exegetical skill on a general level and on a level specific to one of four specialized areas of study: biblical studies, dogmatic theology, moral theology, or pastoral theology and evangelization.
1c. Students will demonstrate knowledge of sound doctrine and knowledge of sources for sound theological reflection (including Scripture and ecclesial texts) dealing with general theological topics as well as issues pertaining to one of four specialized areas of study: biblical studies, dogmatic theology, moral theology, or pastoral theology and evangelization.
1d. Students will demonstrate the ability to provide reasoned and coherent responses to specialized questions in one of four areas of study: biblical studies, dogmatic theology, moral theology, or pastoral theology and evangelization.
1e. Students will evidence a sound understanding of the complexities of general theological issues as well as issues related to one of four specialized areas of study: biblical studies, dogmatic theology, moral theology, or pastoral theology and evangelization.

Goal #2

Students will demonstrate the ability to conduct graduate-level theological research and writing.

Objectives

2a. Students will explore in some depth the status quaestionis of a theological question of some difficulty and complexity, and based upon this exploration will articulate and validate a clear thesis statement.
2b. Students will demonstrate the use of primary sources in their research and writing, as well as apt secondary sources.
2c. Students will demonstrate the exercise of critical judgment and insight in analyzing and synthesizing ideas, exhibiting a solid grasp of theological issues.
2d. Students will exhibit the ability to present the research according to the literary standards appropriate to a master’s thesis, including writing style and writing mechanics.

Declaration of Intent and Enrollment as a Degree Candidate

Ordinarily, seminarians need to declare their intent to pursue the MA in the spring semester of the first year of their MDiv studies, so that subsequent three years of studies may be planned accordingly. When a seminarian expresses his intent to pursue the MA, he must receive written permission to do so from his sponsoring bishop, or the bishop’s delegate, on a form provided by the academic dean.

Typically, seminarians formally enroll as candidates in the MA degree program before the end of the first semester of the third year of their MDiv studies, after completion of language requirements.

Prerequisites

- All MA candidates must have earned a bachelor’s degree (ordinarily with a GPA of at least 3.0) from an institution accredited by an agency recognized by the Council for Higher Education Accreditation or holding membership in the Association of Universities and Colleges in Canada, or the educational equivalent.
- Fifteen semester hours of philosophical studies, with three hours each in metaphysics and philosophy of God, and nine hours from among the following: philosophy of human nature, epistemology, cosmology, ethics, and/or courses in the history of philosophy. The grade point average for these courses must be 3.0 or better. These courses may be taken at either the graduate or undergraduate level.
- Six hours of courses in Scripture, three of which must treat some portion of the Old Testament, and three some portion of the New Testament.

The above course requirements must be met before a seminarian is admitted to the MA program.

Language Requirements

A reading knowledge of Latin is required of candidates in dogmatic theology, moral theology, or pastoral theology and evangelization. Additionally, candidates in dogmatic theology, moral theology, or pastoral theology and evangelization are strongly recommended to develop reading competence in one of the major modern languages, such as French, German, Italian or Spanish, in addition to English. Seminarians in biblical studies must be able to read one biblical language, either Greek or...
Elective courses taken in this area of concentration are designated BI at the 900-level.

• Dogmatic Theology: Elective courses taken in this area of concentration are designated DO at the 900-level.

• Moral Theology: Elective courses taken in this area of concentration are designated CL at the 900-level.

• Pastoral Theology and Evangelization: Elective courses taken in this area of concentration are designated PA at the 900-level.

The course component for the MA, including core and concentration courses, must be completed with an average grade of “B”, with no grades earned below a “C.”

Written Concentration Examinations

Seminarians will demonstrate the accomplishment of the learning objectives for their MA core courses through their MDiv competency exams and will not be tested separately on this material for the MA degree. Seminarians pursuing the MA must obtain an average grade of “3.0” on their MDiv competency examinations with no part of the exams scored below a “2.0.”

Seminarians will demonstrate the accomplishment of the learning objectives for their MA concentration courses through a two-hour written exam specific to these courses and based on the learning objectives documented on the syllabus of each course. This written examination usually is administered in March or April of the final semester of the fourth year of studies.

The seminarian must complete the MA competency examination with an average grade of “3.0” or better, with no component scored lower than a “2.0.” Retakes usually are not permitted.

Research

The goal of the research component is to have candidates demonstrate competence in theological research in the area of concentration. They do so by writing a theological work in which they demonstrate competence in theological research in the area of concentration. They do so by writing a theological work in which they demonstrate competence in theological research in the area of concentration. They do so by writing a theological work in which they demonstrate competence in theological research in the area of concentration.

In both forms, such projects will have a director (or first reader), and a second reader. The academic dean will officially appoint both readers. The research director must be a member of the full-time faculty of the Josephinum. If no full-time faculty member possesses the appropriate expertise in the area of the research project, an outside second reader may be appointed. The research project often will be the development of a paper written for a previous course, or it may be a new topic. In the former case, the professor of the course ordinarily will serve as director.

Both readers grade the paper; the average grade must be at least a “3.0” for the candidate to complete the degree. Upon receiving a passing grade, the final version of the paper must be submitted to the academic dean in a form ready for binding.

In order to facilitate the successful completion of the research requirement for the Master of Arts in Theology Degree, seminarians pursuing the MA are required to enroll in the following courses, each for one credit hour:

- MA 701 MA Research Seminar
- MA 702 MA Directed Research I
- MA 801 MA Directed Research II
- MA 802 MA Research Project

For further descriptions of the above courses see “Course Descriptions for the School of Theology.”

Grading

A candidate must obtain a grade point average of “B” (3.0) or better for each degree requirement including: (1) the course work as a whole, (2) the thesis or research paper, (3) the written concentration examinations. Each of the three components is worth one-third of the final grade.

Seminarians who have attained the following cumulative grade point averages will graduate from the MA degree program with honors:

- Summa Cum Laude 3.90
- Magna Cum Laude 3.70
- Cum Laude 3.50

Process and Documentation Cycle for Obtaining the Master of Arts in Theology

A description of the process for pursuing the MA degree, including the documentation that must be on file in the registrar’s office, follows.

Declaration of Intent

1. The seminarian declares his intent to pursue a Master of Arts (MA) in Theology in the spring semester of his first year of studies during registration for the fall semester of his second year of studies.

   a. If a seminarian wishes to declare his intent to pursue the MA in Theology he completes the Master of Arts in Theology Degree Statement of Intent form during his scheduled registration appointment with the academic dean of the School of Theology (hereafter referred to as the dean). This form must be signed by the seminarian’s sponsoring bishop or bishop’s delegate.

   b. During the registration meeting, the dean will inform the seminarian of the requirements necessary to pursue the MA. The dean may consult with the seminarian’s formation advisor about the seminarian’s desire to pursue the MA.

   c. After all signatures are obtained on the statement of intent form, the dean gives the form to the registrar.

   d. The registrar creates a new tab in the seminarian’s academic file behind which is placed documentation pertaining to the MA degree. The registrar then adds the statement of intent form to the seminarian’s academic file behind which is placed documentation pertaining to the MA.

   e. Throughout the next two years the dean works with the seminarian to ensure that he is meeting the requirements for pursuing the MA.

   f. After a seminarian declares his intent to pursue the MA, the dean uses the Master of Arts in Theology Degree Record of Course Requirements Fulfilled form to record grades for the courses the seminarian will need in order to complete the MA.

Research Project Proposal and Direction

2. The seminarian submits his MA research project proposal in the fall semester of his third year of studies, upon completion of the MA Research Seminar.

   a. By the time the MA Research Seminar concludes, the seminarian, in consultation with the dean, should identify a director for the research project.

   b. The seminarian must print the Master of Arts in Theology Degree Research Project Proposal form from the Josephinum SharePoint page, complete all information, and bring the form to his registration appointment with the dean for the spring semester.

   c. The dean gives the research project proposal to the research director who signs the form and returns it to the dean.

   d. The dean reviews the proposal, signs it, and gives it to the registrar for the seminarian’s academic file.

   e. The dean will not appoint a second reader for the research project until after a complete draft is submitted to the director.

   f. The seminarian will enroll in MA Directed Research I, MA Directed Research II and MA Research Project during the third and fourth years of study.

   g. The seminarian is to be in frequent contact with his research director (as specified by the descriptions of MA Directed Research I and II) as he works on the research project during the third and fourth year of studies; failure to do so may result in the director refusing to direct the project, at which point the seminarian will no longer be permitted to pursue the MA.

Enrollment as a Degree Candidate

3. The seminarian formally enrolls as a candidate for the MA in the fall semester of his third year of studies during registration for the spring of his third year of studies.

   a. To become a candidate for the MA, the seminarian must have completed the prerequisite language requirements and the MA Research Seminar.

   b. If a seminarian wishes to become a candidate for the MA, he must complete the Master of Arts in Theology Degree Statement of Candidacy form during his scheduled registration appointment with the dean.

   c. The dean reviews with the seminarian the remaining requirements that he must fulfill for the MA. The dean may consult with the seminarian’s formation advisor about the seminarian’s desire to be advanced to candidacy for the MA.

   d. Both the seminarian and the dean sign the statement of candidacy form. The dean gives the form to the registrar for the seminarian’s official file.

   e. The dean informs the seminarian that he has been accepted as a candidate.
Draft and Final Versions of Research Project

4. Complete drafts of research projects, including bibliography, are due at the end of the fall semester of the fourth year; final versions are due in late March.

a. The seminarian is to submit via email a complete draft of his research project, including a bibliography, to the research director and the academic dean, no later than 4:30 p.m. on the last day of the fall semester (the last day of final exams) of the fourth year of studies. The dean will forward the draft to a second reader and the director of library services. Failure to submit a complete draft of the research project by the deadline will result in the seminarian being withdrawn as a candidate for the MA degree. In extraordinary circumstances, a seminarian may submit to the dean a written petition for an extension. The extension can be granted only by a vote of the theology faculty.

b. The research director and second reader read the paper and return it to the seminarian for necessary revisions by the beginning of the spring semester. Should the seminarian receive conflicting feedback from the director and second reader, the seminarian should inform his director, who has the responsibility of negotiating any differences. The director of the library will read the draft for proper formatting and return the draft to the seminarian by the beginning of the spring semester. The research project must be formatted according to the guidelines specified in the Pontifical College Josephinum Formatting Guidelines for Master’s Research Projects.

c. The process of revision must be completed and the final version of the paper must be submitted and emailed to the director, second reader, dean, and librarian by the end of March (exact date to be set annually by the dean). A completed Master of Arts in Theology Degree Research Project Submission form (found on the Josephinum SharePoint page) must be completed and submitted to the dean. This form needs to be signed by the research director to certify that the director is satisfied with the finished project.

d. The dean signs the research project submission form to acknowledge receipt of the completed research project.

e. The director and second reader must complete their reading of the research project no later than two weeks after it is received.

f. The grades assigned by the research director and second reader are recorded on the research project scoring rubrics provided by the dean. The research director and second reader sign these rubrics and submit them to the dean. The dean records the grades on the Master of Arts in Theology Degree Research Project Evaluation form and submits it to the registrar, who signs it and places it in the seminarian’s academic file.

g. After the research project has been graded by the director and second reader, and after any final editorial revisions are made as required by the director, second reader, or director of library services, the seminarian submits a MS Word file of his project to the dean and to the director of library services. The director of library services will archive the research project in the library.

Written Concentration Examination

5. The following are the final steps in the MA process.

a. The written concentration exam is administered in the spring semester of the fourth year of studies (date to be scheduled by the dean). Grades for the MA written concentration exam are recorded on the exam rubrics and submitted to the dean by the graders. The dean records the grade on the Master of Arts in Theology Degree Concentration Exam Grade Sheet and the Composite Grades for the Master of Arts in Theology Degree form.

b. The dean determines the composite grade for the MA in Theology degree using the Composite Grades for the Master of Arts in Theology Degree form and the Master of Arts in Theology Degree Record of Course Requirements Fulfilled form. He then signs these forms and gives them to the registrar.

c. The registrar signs the Composite Grades for the Master of Arts in Theology Degree form and places it, along with the record of course requirements fulfilled, in the seminarian’s academic file.

d. The registrar determines what honors, if any, will be granted.

Duration of the Program

If a candidate for the MA degree cannot complete all requirements for the degree within the four years allotted for the MDiv program, the candidate must submit to the dean a written petition for an extension. The extension may be granted (by a vote of the theology faculty) for what is judged to be a good reason. A one-credit hour continuous enrollment must be maintained for all semesters between completion of course work and completion of all other degree requirements. All MA degree requirements must be fulfilled within two years after completion of coursework.
BACHELOR OF SACRED THEOLOGY

The Josephinum, in affiliation with the Pontifical University of Saint Thomas Aquinas (Angelicum) in Rome, Italy, offers a Bachelor of Sacred Theology (STB) degree. Since this degree is awarded by the Angelicum, it is an entry-level pontifical degree; candidates awarded this degree may then pursue higher pontifical degrees.

Requirements for the Bachelor of Sacred Theology Program

Admission requirements for the STB program are a Bachelor’s degree or its equivalent from an accredited college and courses that include those philosophical and theological fields outlined in the Program of Priestly Formation (6th ed.), namely, 30 credit hours of philosophy that include logic, ancient, medieval, modern, and contemporary philosophy, the philosophy of human nature, epistemology, metaphysics, ethics, and the philosophy of God; and 12 credits in undergraduate theology that include a survey of the Catechism of the Catholic Church. A reading knowledge of Latin and Greek is also required.

The following prerequisites are part of the STB Degree: Latin 6 credits (17 ECTS); Greek 6 credits (17 ECTS).

Language requirements are fulfilled by taking six credit hours of the language at an accredited institution in which the seminarian receives at least a “C.” These courses are offered in both the College of Liberal Arts and the School of Theology.

Alternatively, proficiency in required languages can also be demonstrated by an examination in which the candidate shows his ability to read and understand representative texts with the aid of a dictionary. The candidate must attain at least a “C” on the exam. The exam will be administered by a professor assigned by the academic dean. For the Latin exam, the proficiency will be demonstrated by translating into English a passage from Lumen Gentium (or a similar document). Greek proficiency will be demonstrated by the translation into English of a passage from the Gospel of John.

MDiv Oral Competency Examinations in scripture, dogma, morals, and liturgy and sacraments (30 minutes each), will fulfill the oral exam requirement for the STB.

Process and Documentation Cycle for Obtaining the Bachelor of Sacred Theology

What follows is a description of the process for pursuing the Bachelor of Sacred Theology (STB) degree, including the documentation that must be on file in the registrar’s office.

Declaration of Intent

1. The seminarian declares his intent to pursue the STB in the spring semester of his first year of studies during registration for the fall semester of the second year of studies.

   a. If a seminarian wishes to declare his intent to pursue the STB, he completes the Bachelor of Sacred Theology Statement of Intent form during his scheduled registration appointment with the academic dean of the School of Theology (hereafter referred to as the dean). This form must be signed by the seminarian’s sponsoring bishop or bishop’s delegate.

   b. During the registration meeting, the dean will inform the seminarian of the requirements necessary to pursue the STB. The dean may consult with the seminarian’s formation advisor about the seminarian’s desire to pursue the STB.

   c. After all signatures are obtained on the statement of intent form, the dean gives the form to the registrar.

   d. The registrar creates a new tab in the seminarian’s academic file behind which is placed documentation pertaining to the STB degree. The registrar then adds the statement of intent form to the seminarian’s academic file behind the newly created tab where it is to be officially stored.

   e. Throughout the next two years the dean works with the seminarian to ensure he is meeting the requirements for pursuing the STB.

Enrollment as a Degree Candidate

2. The seminarian formally enrolls as a candidate for the STB in the fall semester of his third year of studies, during registration for the spring semester of his third year of studies.

   a. To become a candidate for the STB, the seminarian must have completed the prerequisite language requirements (Latin and Greek).

   b. If a seminarian wishes to become a candidate for the STB, he must complete the Bachelor of Sacred Theology (STB) Statement of Candidacy form during his scheduled registration appointment with the dean.

   c. The dean reviews with the seminarian the remaining requirements that he must fulfill for the STB. The dean may consult with the seminarian’s formation advisor about the seminarian’s desire to be advanced to candidacy for the STB.

   d. Both the seminarian and the dean sign the statement of candidacy form. The dean gives the form to the registrar for the seminarian’s academic file.

   e. The dean informs the seminarian that he has been accepted as a candidate.
STB Exams and Other Arrangements
3. STB Comprehensive Oral Examination Requirement and Other Final Arrangements
   a. The seminarian’s oral MDiv Competency Examination scores will be used as the STB oral examination requirement.
   b. The dean determines the composite grade for the STB degree using the Bachelor of Sacred Theology (STB) Composite Grade Sheet. He then signs this sheet and submits it to the registrar.
   c. The registrar signs the Bachelor of Sacred Theology (STB) Composite Grade Sheet, and places it in the seminarian’s academic file.
   d. The dean scans hard copies of documents into a packet of information to be emailed to the Angelicum. The following documents are included in the packet:
      i. An introductory letter from the dean
      ii. Copies of seminarians’ transcripts indicating that the pre-requisites for the STB have been fulfilled
      iii. Original Josephinum School of Theology transcripts to date
      iv. Proof that the graduation fee has been paid to the Angelicum (this may be obtained from the treasurer).
      v. Also included in the email are files of the seminarians’ research papers.
   e. The electronic packet is emailed by the dean to the Angelicum.
   f. Once the semester is finished, the dean’s office sends to the Angelicum, via email, finalized transcripts and individual record reports for each STB candidate as well as a general record report for all of the STB candidates.

Duration of the Program
   If a candidate for the STB degree program cannot complete all requirements for the degree within the four years allotted for the MDiv program, then the candidate must submit to the dean a written petition for an extension. The extension may be granted (by a vote of the theology faculty) for what is judged to be a good reason. A one-credit hour continuous enrollment must be maintained for all semesters between completion of course work and completion of all other degree requirements. All STB degree requirements must be fulfilled within two years after completion of coursework.

“This is my body, which will be given for you; do this in memory of me.”
Luke 22:19
Including the prerequisite language courses, the total number of credit hours required for the STB Degree is 112.5 (213 ECTS = European Credit Transfer and Accumulation System).
HISPANIC MINISTRY FIELD EDUCATION CERTIFICATE

This certificate prepares both non-Hispanic and Hispanic seminarians in the School of Theology for ministry to the growing population of Hispanic Catholics in the United States. It emphasizes learning through practice of the different elements involved in ministry to this population. In order to enroll in the Hispanic Ministry Field Education Certificate program, the seminarian must first receive permission from his sponsoring diocese.

Prerequisites

Two semesters (6 credits) of elementary Spanish
- Fulfilled at the Josephinum or by transfer credits or placement tests.
- 1st or 2nd year Theology
  Specification: Theologians who have not taken any Spanish courses may take Spanish 141 and 142 at the Josephinum to fulfill this requirement. Those who have had some Spanish may take the Spanish I and II placement tests. Six elementary Spanish credits earned with a grade of “C” or higher at another college or university will be accepted as transfer credits.

One semester (3 credits) of intermediate Spanish
- Fulfilled at the Josephinum or by transfer credits, a placement test, or by a Hispanic program abroad.
- 2nd or 3rd year Theology
  Specification: Theologians who have six credits in elementary Spanish may take one semester of Spanish 241 at the Josephinum, take the Spanish III placement test, or study abroad in a Hispanic country to fulfill this requirement. Three intermediate Spanish credits earned with a grade of “C” or higher at another college or university will be accepted as transfer credits.

Requirements

One Semester of Advanced Pastoral Spanish (3 credits)
- This course must be taken at the Josephinum, unless a course with very similar content has been taken elsewhere. Acceptance of such a course will be on a case-specific basis. Native Spanish speakers who are also conversant in English may be exempt from this course, as decided by the instructor.
- 2nd or 3rd year (fall semester) Theology
  Specification: Theologians with credits in Elementary Spanish I and II and Intermediate Spanish or who have passed Spanish I-III placement tests are eligible to take this course, which will be taught mostly in Spanish. The course consists of grammar-review, on-the-spot translation from Spanish to English and English to Spanish, composition, and oral presentations.

One Summer Immersion at a U.S. Hispanic Parish or in a Hispanic Country
- Summer after 2nd or 3rd year Theology
  Specification: The director of vocations or bishop of each diocese will decide and arrange where the seminarians will be placed for immersion experiences, which may be in the United States or in a Hispanic country. There are ample opportunities for immersion in Hispanic parishes or parish communities in the United States, including opportunities in the Columbus diocese. The Josephinum will assist in the choice of an immersion program, if requested.

One Year of Apostolic Field Work
- Performed in a Hispanic parish or parish community
  Specification: There are many opportunities for apostolic work in the Hispanic communities of the Diocese of Columbus.

Hispanic Ministry I (2 credits)
- Sacraments and popular religiosity
- Fall semester, 3rd year or fall semester, 4th year Theology
  Specification: This course will be conducted by a bilingual priest in weekly two-hour practicum classes. Students will learn to celebrate Hispanic baptisms, quinceañeras, and weddings, and perform funeral rites outside of Mass. They will also write and deliver homilies in Spanish once per week.

Hispanic Ministry II (2 credits)
- Sacraments, confessions, family and prison ministry
- Spring semester, 3rd year or spring semester, 4th year Theology
  Specification: This course will be conducted by a bilingual priest in weekly two-hour practicum classes. Students will practice celebrating Mass, administering the sacraments, and hearing confessions from Hispanic parishioners who volunteer their time to simulate real-life situations. They will also write and deliver homilies in Spanish once per week.

Diaconal Assignment
- 4th year Theology or summer prior to 4th year Theology
  Specification: Deacons will be assigned to a bilingual parish, in order to learn how to minister to the cross-cultural needs of such a community. Insofar as it is possible, an effort will be made to encourage participants to engage in catechesis or preach in the Spanish language at least once per month.
Course Offerings for the School of Theology

BIBLICAL STUDIES

BI 501 Introduction to Scripture
3 hours
Addresses two questions throughout the semester: What is the Bible? How do you interpret it? Considers the Bible as “the Word of God in human words,” and studies the joint divine and human authorship of Sacred Scripture from an incarnational perspective. Studies inspiration, canonicity and truth/inerrancy by means of the guiding Magisterial documents. Introduces specific methods and tools for studying the Biblical text in relation to Patristic exegesis.

BI 502 Wisdom Literature
3 hours
Identifies and examines Wisdom Literature of the Old Testament by situating it in the context of Wisdom ideas in the ancient world and in Jewish tradition. Also attends to Wisdom themes in non-Wisdom literature of the Bible while having exegesis, preaching, and spirituality in view. Prerequisite: BI 501 Introduction to Scripture

BI 512 Pentateuch
3 hours
Introduces the content, structure, and meaning of the Torah/Pentateuch, the first five books of the Bible. Explores major themes and events presented in the text as well as their relationship to other biblical passages. Surveys the history of theories and methods used for the study of the Pentateuch. This course requires a research paper of ten to fifteen pages. Prerequisite: BI 501 Introduction to Scripture

BI 602 Synoptic Gospels and Acts
3 hours
Examines the content of the Gospels according to Matthew, Mark, and Luke as well as the Acts of the Apostles with attention given to their origins, structures, styles, purposes, and meanings. To aid the development of sound exegetical skills for preaching and spirituality, focus is given to original communities as well as analyzing key passages and themes in each corpus. This course begins by introducing the literary genre of gospel, the Synoptic Problem, and Synoptic method. Prerequisite: BI 501 Introduction to Scripture

BI 612 Pauline Corpus
3 hours
Provides a general introduction to the thirteen letters of Paul, accounting for their historical contexts and developments. Gives special attention to the literary structure of the letters, the rhetorical situation that produced them, and their particular theology. Also, focuses on the pastoral relevance of the letters and how one actualizes their message in our contemporary situation. Prerequisite: BI 501 Introduction to Scripture

BI 701 Johannine Corpus
3 hours
Examines the Johannine writings with an emphasis on the Gospel according to John, all with a view toward exegesis, preaching, and spirituality. After treating introductory issues of the Gospel, this course engages in detailed study of selected passages of the Gospel, to explain the literary techniques and theology of the evangelist. Ends with a general introduction to the letters of John and the book of Revelation attending to the themes therein. Prerequisite: BI 501 Introduction to Scripture

BI 940 Letter to the Hebrews
3 hours
Undertakes a detailed exegetical study of the Letter to the Hebrews giving special attention to its literary structure and its historical and religious context, specifically, its use of the Old Testament. Part of the course is in seminar format. Prerequisite: BI 501 Introduction to Scripture; Recommended: BI 612 Pauline Corpus

BI 950 Galatians and Romans
3 hours
Explores the person of the Apostle Paul in depth by examining his exegetical method, his theology, and his pastoral concerns. Explains introductory issues of Paul’s letters to the Galatians and the Romans such as audience and epistolary circumstances. Gives an exegetical study of the complete text of both letters. Part of the course is in seminar format. Prerequisite: BI 501 Introduction to Scripture; Recommended: BI 612 Pauline Corpus

BI 970 Passion Narratives
3 hours
Studies the Passion Narratives of the four Gospels comparatively in a seminar format. Emphasizes the historical background of the events, the distinctive emphasis of the Gospel writers, and the meaning of the suffering and death of Jesus as understood by various early Christians. Investigates individual passages in their historical and literary contexts following an examination of the Passion Narratives as a whole. Prerequisites: BI 501 Introduction to Scripture, BI 602 Synoptic Gospels and Acts

BI 971 Nuptial Theology: Biblical Foundations
3 hours
Introduces seminarians to the concepts, methodology, and texts of Nuptial Theology (Biblical Foundations), as nuptiality is a core component of Christian life and of the life of an ordained priest of the Catholic Church.

Electives (Offerings change each year.)

BI 930 Psalms
3 hours
Explores this liturgical and personal prayer book of Jews and Christians for millennia, a book that embraces the entire spectrum of human emotion and experience, speaking as much to people of today as it did to the first composers. Analyzes the overall structure of the book, types of Psalms, aspects of Hebrew poetry, and important themes. Prerequisite: BI 501 Introduction to Scripture; Recommended: BI 502 Wisdom Literature

 CHRISTIAN LIVING **

 CL 502 Fundamental Moral Theology I **

3 hours

Introduces the key topics of fundamental moral theology, drawing on the moral theology of Saint Thomas Aquinas and the recent renewal of Thomistic thought. These topics include beatitude, human action, ends and the ultimate end, the good and evil of human acts, and their intrinsic principles—like the powers of the soul and their shaping by virtues or vices—and extrinsic principles, like law and grace. The course seeks to follow the directions encouraged by Veritatis Splendor and the Second Vatican Council and to shed light on the key debates in post-conciliar moral theology.

 CL 512 Foundations of Spirituality **

3 hours

Introduces the discipline of spiritual theology, that is, the theological study of progress in the life of transforming intimacy with God. Includes an extended introduction to priestly spirituality and a study of the place of the Virgin Mary in the Christian life.

 CL 601 Fundamental Moral Theology II **

3 hours

Continues to draw on the moral theology of Saint Thomas Aquinas through special attention to the theological and moral virtues. Dialogues with Scripture following the example of Veritatis Splendor, the call of the Second Vatican Council, and the contemporary renewal of Thomistic ethics. Shows how the virtues reflect the order of reason that governs morality, and how an understanding of the virtues can be conducive to personal growth and pastoral ministry. Prerequisite: CL 502 Fundamental Moral Theology I

 CL 602 Catholic Social Teaching **

3 hours

Introduces Catholic Social Teaching by studying magisterial documents (especially since Rerum Novarum), the challenges those documents sought to address, and the principles they employed. Gives attention to the historical development of the tradition, how the documents have been received, and how their reception is influenced by alternative philosophies and schools of thought. Seeks to help seminarians bring the insights of the tradition to bear in contemporary society and culture.

 CL 701 Sexual Morality **

3 hours

Introduces Catholic teaching on the exercise of human sexuality and the living of chastity so that seminarians begin to develop the skills necessary to promote this teaching through their pastoral ministry. Attends to historical, theoretical, and comparative perspectives, and considers both the virtuous exercise of sexuality and the offenses against it, giving special attention to the most contested questions. Covers some significant pastoral and practical issues such as natural family planning, contraception, and training in chastity. Prerequisites: CL 502 Fundamental Moral Theology I, and CL 601 Fundamental Moral Theology II

 CL 702 Bioethics **

3 hours

Introduces moral principles, explores topics, and examines pastoral questions of central import to bioethics. Introduces and applies the following moral principles: double effect, integrity and totality, material/formal cooperation, ordinary/extraordinary means, integrated sexuality and free and informed consent. Addresses the following topics when human life begins and ends, abortion, reproductive technologies, in vitro fertilization, fetal testing, genetic engineering, sterilization, organ donation and transplantation, and euthanasia. Also examines the physician/patient relationship, confidentiality, and some questions concerned with the social organization of health care and its ability to deliver services. Prerequisites: CL 502 Fundamental Moral Theology I, and CL 601 Fundamental Moral Theology II and CL 701 Sexual Morality

 Electives (Offerings change each year.) **

 CL/PA 903 Thomistic Response to Moral Relativism **

3 hours

Examines the reality of moral relativism in various parts of contemporary life, then studies the beginning of prima secundae of Saint Thomas Aquinas’s Summa Theologicae. Focuses particularly on human acts, their goodness and evil, and their relation to human happiness.

 CL/PA 905 The Conferences of Saint John Cassian **

3 hours

Provides a close reading of the complete Conferences after introductory lectures on the life and importance of Saint John Cassian. Students take turns leading seminar discussions on the required reading.

 CL/DO 950 Theology of the Body Pope Saint John Paul II **

3 hours

See DO 950 for the course description.

 DO 501 Fundamental Theology **

3 hours

Studies the fundamentals of the dialogue between God and man, examining divine revelation and man’s response to it. Considers a range of topics including theological and historical reflection on revelation, the transmission of revelation in the Church including the relation between Scripture and Tradition, the act of faith and its context in today’s world, the credibility of revelation, and the relation between faith and reason. Also addressed are challenges faced by Catholic theology from modern cultural beliefs.

 DO 511 Theological Anthropology **

3 hours

Examines the theology of creation and human origins (protology); of human nature, predestination, sin, justification, freedom, and grace; and of the life of the world to come (eschatology).

 DO 601 Trinity **

3 hours

Studies the Christian doctrine of the Triune God. Covers the scriptural foundation of the Trinitarian doctrine and examines the history of creedal statements and heresies concerning that doctrine. Focuses primarily on the traditional reflections on this most fundamental of Christian dogmas drawing from the teaching of Saint Augustine and Saint Thomas Aquinas. This course requires a research paper of ten to fifteen pages in length.
DO 602
Christology
3 hours
Studies the Catholic Tradition’s understanding of Jesus Christ. Covers the historical Jesus and the foundations of Christology in the New Testament, and the refinement of Christological doctrine through the subsequent life of the Church, beginning with the Early Church Fathers. Undertakes systematic reflection on selected issues in Christology and Soteriology with the guidance of Saint Thomas Aquinas. Addresses the relationship between Mariology and Christology with attention given to the Church’s four defined Marian dogmas.

DO 701
Holy Orders
3 hours
Studies the nature and mission of the ministerial priesthood, including the history and theology of celibacy. Also examines key authoritative texts, from Vatican II to the present, on the mission, life, and spirituality of priests. Prerequisites: LS 601 Sacramental Principles, Baptism, and Confirmation

DO 702
Ecclesiology
3 hours
Offers a Biblical, historical, and doctrinal examination of the origin, nature, and mission of the Church. Presents the self-understanding of the Church in relation to the fundamental, inseparable mysteries of the Trinity and the Incarnation. Highlights the ecclesiology of Vatican II using the Dogmatic Constitution Lumen Gentium. Covers the relationship between ecclesiology and Mariology, as well as principles of ecumenism.

Electives (Offerings change each year.)

DO 920
Theology of Saint Augustine
3 hours
Overviews the life, and works of Saint Augustine of Hippo, and focuses on his contribution to the Western Christian theological tradition.

DO/PA 935
Catholic Response to Secularism and Liberalism
3 hours
Examines the Catholic modern responses to secularist and technocratic ideologies and practices present in contemporary Western society. Gives special attention to the American culture by showing the harmony between Catholicism and the dominant patterns of American life and thought. Relies on contemporary thinkers such as Ratzinger, Murray, De Lubac and, especially, D.L. Schindler.

DO/CL 950
Theology of the Body Pope Saint John Paul II
3 hours
Undertakes a close reading of Pope Saint John Paul II’s corpus of teaching called the Theology of the Body. Aims to foster understanding of the human person as a bodily creature living in the fallen but redeemed world, especially in the context of his origin as well as natural and supernatural vocation to love and life in community (the communion of persons). Instructs on the implications of this integral anthropology for Christian ethics and sacramental life, especially for marriage and virginity chosen for the Kingdom of God.

DO/CL 953
Freedom and Truth: Pope Saint John Paul II, John Courtney Murray, and Vatican II
3 hours
Discusses the relation between freedom and truth in light of the interpretations of the Vatican II Declaration on Religious Freedom Dignitatis Humanae. Focuses on the thought of Pope Saint John Paul II and John Courtney Murray, SJ.

DO/PA 954
Theology of the New Evangelization
3 hours
Undertakes a review of magisterial texts and theological commentary concerning the New Evangelization. Considers some of the main theological themes of the New Evangelization, the content of the message, the target audiences for the message, and the different agents and means of carrying out the New Evangelization.

DO/PA 959
Documents of the Second Vatican Council
3 hours
Examines and analyzes the sixteen documents issued by the Second Vatican Council. Uses a seminar format requiring active participation and presentations by students.

DO 960
Encyclicals of Pope Saint John Paul II
3 hours
Provides insight into the theology of Pope Saint John Paul II as presented in his encyclical letters. Discusses Trinitarian, Marian, ecclesial, anthropological, and pastoral themes and contexts. Relies predominantly, but not exclusively, on Redemptor Hominis, Divus in Misericordia, Dominum et Vivificantem, Redemptoris Mater, Evangelium Vitae, Ut Unum Sint, and Ecclesia de Eucharistia.

DO 962
Thought of Joseph Ratzinger
3 hours
Explores the theological thought of Joseph Ratzinger from the pastoral perspective. Investigates the main themes concerning liturgy, the Eucharist, and priesthood in light of creation, anthropology, Christology, and eschatology. Considers Ratzinger’s reflections on the Church in the modern world and Marian doctrine.

DO/CL 981
Aquinas on Evil
3 hours
Focuses on a close and complete reading of Saint Aquinas’ Disputed Questions on Evil in a seminar format. The topics are: evil; sins; the causes of sin; original sin; the punishment due to original sin; human free choice; venial sin; mortal sin; the seven capital sins; and the demons. Covers equal parts dogmatic and moral theology.

DO/PA 990
Theology of the Laity
3 hours
Presents a theology of the laity with special attention given to the documents of the Second Vatican Council and post-conciliar magisterial texts. Includes an overview of the development of the theology of the laity from the Bible to contemporary reflections.

HISPANIC MINISTRY

The courses described under this section are requirements for the Hispanic Ministry Field Education Certificate. They may also be taken by any seminarians who wish to learn more about Hispanic Ministry.

HM 467
Advanced Pastoral Spanish
3 hours
Focuses on Hispanic Ministry, with advanced grammar and idiom review, translation, composition, and presentations and discussions in Spanish. Required to have nine Spanish language credits, successfully complete the three Spanish placement tests, or be otherwise prepared to take a course that is taught entirely in Spanish. May also be taken by Hispanic seminarians who need to refresh or perfect their grammar and learn to translate both ways.
HM 469
Hispanic Ministry I
2 hours
Conducted by a bilingual priest in weekly two-hour practicum classes. Learn to celebrate Hispanic baptisms, quinceañeras, and weddings, and perform funeral rites outside of Mass. Write and deliver homilies in Spanish once per week.

Hispanic Ministry II
2 hours
Conducted by a bilingual priest in weekly two-hour practicum classes. Practice celebrating Mass, administering the sacraments, and hearing confessions from Hispanic parishioners who volunteer their time to simulate real-life situations. Write and deliver homilies in Spanish once per week.

HISTORICAL STUDIES

HS 501
Church History I
3 hours
Presents an overview and exploration of the significant theological and structural developments in the Church's life and mission up to A.D. 1054. Highlights significant persons and events in the life of the Church during this period. Gives special attention to the Early Church Fathers, Ecumenical Councils, and the factors leading up to the Great Schism of 1054. This course will require a research paper of ten to fifteen pages in length.

HS 502
Church History II
3 hours
Surveys Church history from the East-West schism up to the brink of the Protestant Reformation. Investigates the Church’s role in medieval Christian culture and politics, including the major conflicts between Church and state, the exercise of Papal imperium, the crusades, the rise of new religious orders, the threat of schism, the achievements of the universities, and the fragile synthesis of late-medieval Christendom. Explores the introduction of Christian humanism and the need for reform expressed by churchmen prior to the events of the Protestant Reformation.

HS 601
Church History III
3 hours
Surveys Church history from the Reformation (Protestant and Catholic) to the post-Vatican II era. Traces the Church’s involvement with major intellectual and political events, including the Council of Trent, the wars of religion, the scientific revolution, the Enlightenment, the French Revolution, theological liberalism and modernism, the world wars, and the Cold War. Investigates the origins of major contemporary challenges to the Church such as rationalism, materialism, and secularization. Concludes with a study of the universal character of the Church as expressed in the documents of Vatican II.

HS 801
History of the Catholic Church in the U.S.
3 hours
Identifies different models of public Catholicism through the history of the Catholic Church in North America, from Spanish and French colonialism through the founding and growth of the United States to the present day. While attending closely to the key historical figures and events of each period, students will study the primary political, ecclesial, and evangelical task which animated each period. This study is intended to prompt reflection on the relationship between the Catholic faith and American politics and culture, and to foster discussion about communicating that faith in the American context.

1 hour
In the final semester of studies, MA candidates conclude the work on their research projects. Students are expected to meet with their research directors at least once every two weeks until the project is submitted for grading. The grade for this independent study will be the average of the grades assigned to the project by the research director and the second reader. Prerequisites: MA 701 MA Research Seminar, MA 702 MA Directed Research I, and MA 801 MA Directed Research II
The Josephinum Diaconate Institute

INTRODUCTION

Identity, Mission and History
The Josephinum Diaconate Institute of the Pontifical College Josephinum offers educational programs through distance learning – in both English and Spanish – to diaconal aspirants and candidates, permanent deacons and their spouses, and lay ministers serving or preparing to serve the people of God through ministry in the Church. Its mission is to strengthen pre- and post-ordination diaconate formation for the universal Church.

The Institute was inaugurated by the Josephinum in 2007, in further fidelity to its own mission of providing formation and education for men aspiring to the priesthood.

Customizable Programs for Dioceses
The Institute’s unique Inquiry/Aspirancy/Propaedeutic Program is designed to prepare aspirants for entry into a Candidacy Program. The Candidacy Program offers a wide range of course offerings in each of the theological disciplines. The Institute can customize its selection and sequence to meet the specific needs of each (arch)diocesan partner.

Fully Accredited and in Compliance with the Guidelines of USCCB’s National Directory
The Institute’s distance learning program is fully accredited by The Association of Theological Schools and the Higher Learning Commission. Courses fulfill the continuing education and formation requirements of permanent deacons, in accord with the USCCB’s National Directory for the Formation, Ministry, and the Life of Permanent Deacons in the United States.

Theological and Practical Courses Taught by Qualified Faculty
Courses are taught in fall, spring, and summer 12-week trimesters by highly-qualified permanent deacons, priests, and laity with terminal academic credentials (licentiates/doctorates) and years of pastoral experience. Designed to accentuate both the theoretical and practical dimensions of theology, courses are hybrid in nature and may include reading assignments, reflection papers, and online forums utilizing state-of-the-art technology.

Bilingual and Financially Accessible
Programs offered by the Institute are available in both English and Spanish to students from all walks of life and academic backgrounds. The Institute strives to serve (arch)dioceses with limited personnel and financial resources by offering modest tuition rates and fees.

General Qualification Programs for Aspirants and Candidates to the Permanent Diaconate
General Qualification Programs are designed by Institute officials and diocesan officials to meet the requirements of partner dioceses. Individuals who complete this program successfully are awarded a Certificate of Completion in testimony of their having fulfilled the course set out by their bishop as preparation for ministry.

Professional Certificate in Pastoral Studies
The Professional Certificate in Pastoral Studies Program offers an introduction to the permanent diaconate and a comprehensive overview of the Catholic faith. Course selections for this Certificate Program are extensive and suitable for up to four years of formation. A minimum of 24 credit hours is required.

Master of Arts in Pastoral Studies
Applicants for the Master of Arts in Pastoral Studies program possess an undergraduate degree and are expected to fulfill all requirements for the awarding of a master’s level degree: 36 academic credits; participation in annual pro-seminars; fulfillment of a pre-approved faculty-directed thesis or thesis project. For details, see the JDI website: diaconate.pcj.edu/master-of-arts-in-pastoral-studies/.

Lifelong Ongoing Professional Formation
The Institute’s courses are designed to satisfy the continuing education objectives required of permanent deacons, in accord with the National Directory for the Formation, Ministry, and the Life of Permanent Deacons in the United States. Deacons and their spouses may enroll in any course offered by the Institute.
SAMPLE OF ON-LINE COURSE OFFERINGS

The Josephinum Diaconate Institute offers a five-year pre-ordination curriculum that aligns with the National Directory for the Formation, Ministry, and Life of Permanent Deacons in the United States of America. HISTORICAL THEOLOGY

HSS20CE English / HSS20CS Spanish
Church History
2 hours
This survey course in the history of the Church investigates theological, political, and social developments from the apostolic age through the Second Vatican Council. This range of topics in the course is organized according to the “six ages” of the Church as divided by the historian Christopher Dawson.

HS810CE
Patristics: An Introduction to the Church Fathers
2 hours
The early Church Fathers addressed fundamental questions about the Church in their writings. Included are texts on Christology, the Trinity, the sacraments, and other topics. Writings from the Eastern and Western Fathers will be read to understand better how the Church currently “breathes with both lungs” of the East and West.

HS830CE
The History of the Church in the United States
2 hours
The course is designed to cover the growth of the Church in the United States from the origins of the U.S. to the Second Vatican Council. Beginning with the earliest migrations and explorations and continuing with its colonization by the Spanish and French Empires, the course continues with a study of the growth of Catholicism in the English Colonies and the later American Republic.

MAPS SEMINARS & WORKSHOPS

MP630ME
JDI Summer Seminar
1 hour
See MP730ME: JDI Summer Seminar; Registrants in the 1-credit seminar gain access to the presentations and discussions of the entire seminar but are not expected to prepare or present their own research.

MP730ME
JDI Summer Seminar Workshop
2 hours
Each summer, the MAPS program presents an extended seminar on diaconal ministry featuring speakers whose experience and knowledge have helped to shape the ministry of the permanent diaconate in the United States. The MAPS program requires this 2-credit seminar workshop for students in the MAPS program, but any JDI student may participate. (Note: a 1-credit version of the seminar is also available. See MP630ME for details). All participants will prepare for taking an active role in the seminar by completing the background readings prior to the seminar and follow up assignments. Additionally, MAPS students will work toward their own research goals and, at the end of their program, present their work live as a seminar speaker. (At least one MAPS pro-seminar workshop is required of every MAPS student.)

MP830ME
MAPS Thesis and Project Direction
2 hours
Master’s Thesis and Project Direction is the course for students in the MAPS program. The program requires this 2-credit seminar workshop. For students in the MAPS program, the thesis registration must be taken during the time that a MAPS candidate is working on their thesis. This course registration is required for each semester while the thesis is in process.

PASTORAL THEOLOGY

PAA20CE
The Call, Mission, and Spirituality of the Permanent Deacon
2 hours
This course offers the students an opportunity to examine the diaconate by examining its biblical, patristic, and canonical roots, its decline and ultimate renewal authorized by the Second Vatican Council. The emergence of contemporary theologies of the diaconate will also be explored, based on a spirituality of the diaconate which is grounded in the deacon’s sacramental initiation and ordination, coupled with an approach to diaconal ministry which is at once similar yet distinct from the sacerdotal orders of the episcopate and presbyterate.

PA510CE
Introduction to Pastoral Care and Counseling
2 hours
Pastoral care is part of the daily life of the deacon and all ministers in pastoral assignments. Pastoral counseling incorporates additional theories into the process. Through this course, deacons and their colleagues in ministry will gain the knowledge and skills to be more comfortable in pastoral care situations.

PA620CE
Introduction to Homiletics and Exegesis
2 hours
This course provides students with the foundations for Catholic preaching. As a general introduction, we will examine contemporary magisterial teaching on homiletics while also affording students the opportunity to prepare homilies which will be shared among participants for feedback. Emphasis will be given to the liturgical and sacramental context within which Catholic preaching takes place.

MO720CE
The Social Teaching of the Catholic Church
2 hours
This course introduces Catholic Social Teaching, its place within Catholic doctrine, and its response to contemporary challenges of society, politics, and economy. It also considers Catholic Social Teaching’s relation to contemporary American ideologies.

MO820CE
Catholic Medical Morality and Ministry
2 hours
This course presents fundamental Church principles relating to ethics and medical ethics. This course studies the theology of the human body, personhood, and human dignity in protecting life from beginning to end and in treating illness.
PA720CE
Intermediate Homiletics: Preaching the Lectionary
2 hours
This course focuses on practical dimensions of preparing homilies through a critical and prayerful reading of the Scriptures associated with the various seasons of the liturgical year, as well as using the liturgical year itself as a valuable resource in preaching. Student homilies will be recorded and viewed by the rest of the class, giving an opportunity for constructive feedback. Included will be opportunities for preaching at seasonal celebrations such as the sacred Triduum, Christmas Midnight Mass, Pentecost, and selected Sundays of Ordinary Time.

PA730CE
Canon Law
2 hours
This course has been developed specifically to address the canon law topics which most frequently arise in the ministry of deacons. This course of instruction is based on the 1983 Code of Canon Law.

PA731CE
The Spiritual Life: The Practice of Discernment in Prayer
2 hours
The course leads the student on a spiritual journey of intimacy with God that can bring healing to the minister and those who are being cared for. The journey of this course involves both the head and heart. The course focuses on the theological and Biblical background and some of the basic ways to pray and discern the spiritual life. Included are step-by-step meditations and devotional guides for prayer experiences that help to internalize and adopt the basics of spirituality.

PA820CE
Introduction to Grief Counseling and Ministry
2 hours
This course is designed to allow the participant to explore the many facets of a person who is grieving the loss of someone close to them. Completion of this course will allow the participant to identify with those who bereave and allow the participant to experience a methodology of counseling that will be healing and helpful to the bereaved.

PA830CE
Best Practices for Pastoral Administrators and Directors
2 hours
The course is designed to meet the needs of those appointed to act in the capacity of administrator or business manager of a parish. Participants will be introduced to a variety of administrative tasks common to the role of the parish administrator and to “good practices” for pastors, administrators, and professionals. An overview of applicable legal principles is also provided so that the participant is presented with the tools necessary to analyze administrative issues, recognize potential pitfalls, and formulate viable problem-solving options to parish administrative issues.

PA900EE
Planning and Conducting Funeral and Memorial Services
2 hours
This course is concerned with how a deacon addresses the aspects of the funeral from initial pastoral meetings through the final burial and committal service. The current Roman Catholic guidelines covering vigils and calling hours, the funeral mass, memorial services, committal services, graveside services, and cremations are discussed. Other topics include music and scripture and how and when to use eulogies, sermons, and words of remembrance.

PA901EE
Pastoral Theology, the Art and Science of Shepherding
2 hours
Pastoral theology examines the relationship between the doctrine of the Church and its practice, especially in the context of the local Church and parish. The course looks at pastoral theology and praxis as it developed from Vatican II, with a special focus on the role of pastoral ministers in pastoral care.

PHILOSOPHY/DOGMATIC THEOLOGY

DO410CE English / DO410CS Spanish
Introduction to Catholicism
2 hours
The Introduction to Catholicism course presents students with a comprehensive overview of the teachings of the Roman Catholic faith. It offers students a theological foundation and builds upon the basic tenets of the faith offered in the Catechism of the Catholic Church. The course aims to empower students for future catechetical and ministerial service.

DO420EE
Divine Revelation: Dei Verbum and the Word of God.
2 hours
This course examines the important Vatican II document Dei Verbum: The Dogmatic Constitution on Divine Revelation, and the impact it has on how the Catholic Church reads and interprets Sacred Scripture.

DO430CE English / DO430CS Spanish
Philosophy for Understanding Theology
2 hours
This course presents students with an introductory overview of the major historical figures in the discipline of philosophy and their principal ideas. The goal is to make later theological concepts more intelligible by revealing their association with the great philosophical traditions that influenced the writings of the Church Fathers, Doctors of the Church, and theologians through the ages and into the contemporary world.
DO520CE
Fundamental Theology
2 hours
This course in fundamental theology will introduce students to the complex issues surrounding the interchange between faith and reason. The goal of this course is to help students to solidify their intellectual foundation and prepare them for the work of theological study.

DO610CE
The Church: A Study in Ecclesiology
2 hours
Within the framework of systematic theology, ecclesiology examines the nature of the Church and its emerging challenges. This course considers both classic insights and new directions in ecclesiology, including reflections on the nature and exercise of ministry in the Church. Central to the course is a critical examination of two documents of the Second Vatican Council: The Dogmatic Constitution on the Church (Lumen Gentium) and The Pastoral Constitution on the Church in the Modern World (Gaudium et Spes).

DO620CE
Christology
2 hours
The Son of God became human while remaining divine. He suffered death on the cross to redeem humanity and rose from the dead in glory. The early Church grappled with the question of who was and who is Jesus. The early Councils proclaimed doctrine held to this day, and the Church Fathers wrote cogently about Him. The course addresses the fundamental questions about Jesus and reviews the heresies about Jesus and their resolution by the Church.

DO630CE
Sacramental Theology
2 hours
A comprehensive study of the theology and rites for administering the Sacraments. The course examines biblical foundations for each sacrament, and the way in which the Church has understood and practiced its life of prayer and sanctification throughout history using the sacraments. The primary focus of this study is on the way that the Church currently celebrates the Sacraments.

DO710CE
The Second Vatican Council: History, Vision, and Documents
2 hours
The Second Vatican Council (1962-1965) was the major event in the Church in the twentieth century. Sixty years since the start of the council, its meaning and impact is still being discussed and felt. We will read the four constitutions as well as select declarations and decrees, examining the contexts that gave rise to these documents including the Biblical and liturgical movements.

DO711EE
Ecumenism and Inter-religious Dialog
2 hours
An introduction to the historical context and theology of the ecumenical movement. References will be made to the teaching of the Magisterium, significant achievements in ecumenical dialogue, prospects for future achievements, and the individual participant’s contributions to ecumenism. Exposure to the rich variety of Christian ecclesial communities and traditions and world religions will be included.

DO720CE
Apologetics
2 hours
This course is an introduction to Catholic apologetics equipping the student to clearly explain and charitably defend their faith fulfilling St. Peter’s mandate to: “Always be prepared to make a defense to anyone who calls you to account for the hope that is in you, yet do it with gentleness and reverence.” (1 Peter 3:15)

DO907EE
Theology of Liturgy
2 hours
This course introduces the history, theology, and praxis of the liturgy of the Catholic Church, and explores the function of the liturgy as an integral component of the Christian life and mission.

DO910EE
The Trinity
2 hours
This course surveys the development of Trinitarian doctrine in the Roman Catholic Church from the 1st century to the present, beginning with doctrinal precursors as found in holy Scripture, early liturgical practices, and early writings of the Church Fathers, and ending with mature Roman Catholic Trinitarian doctrine.

DO980EE
The Catechism of the Catholic Church
2 hours
This course will examine the modern Catechism of the Catholic Church (CCC). The focus will be on the content of the doctrines the Church teaches and the style through which she teaches them. The course is divided into four major sections, each corresponding to the four major sections of the CCC.
BI612EE
The Four Gospels: The Synoptics and John
2 hours
This course introduces students to the four canonical Gospels as the principal witness for the life and teaching of Jesus handed on to us in writing. Special attention is devoted to appreciating the inter-relatedness of the synoptic Gospels (Matthew, Mark, and Luke), how they differ from John's Gospel, and how tensions generated by those differences enable us to enter more fully into the mystery of our faith.

BI630CE
Johannine Literature: The Gospel, Letters, and Book of Revelation
2 hours
This course addresses the Gospel of John, the letters of John, and the book of Revelation. Students will learn some fundamental principles of biblical interpretation. These principles will be used to explore the Johannine texts, with special attention paid to the Gospel of John.

BI710CE
Pauline Literature and the Letter to the Hebrews
2 hours
Students explore selected letters of Paul. Topics include authorship, audience, and secular and religious contexts. The study of Paul’s writing style brings additional insight to the texts. Students are prepared for teaching and preaching in the parish and similar settings.

BI713EE
The Letters of Paul and the Acts of the Apostles
2 hours
In this course, students explore selected letters of Paul and Acts. Topics include authorship, audience, secular, and religious contexts. The study of Paul’s writing style brings additional insight to the texts. Students are prepared for teaching and preaching in the parish and similar settings.

BI810CE
Wisdom Literature and the Psalms
2 hours
The book of Psalms is explored as the liturgical and personal prayer book of Jews and Christians, a book that embraces the entire spectrum of human emotion and experience, speaking as much to people of today as it did to those who first composed it. The overall structure of the book, types of Psalms, aspects of Hebrew poetry, and important themes arising in the text are analyzed. This course includes a survey of the other Wisdom literature found in the canon of Sacred Scripture.

BI905EE
The Book of Revelation
2 hours
Students develop an appreciation and understanding of the Book of Revelation by careful study of the text as Sacred Scripture. Homiletic considerations are a particular focus. The study of Revelation examines the pastoral challenges stemming from popular fundamentalist interpretations. Students also explore the impact of Revelation on liturgical worship, justice, and witness.

BI950CE
Walking in The Footsteps of Jesus and the First Deacons: A Pilgrimage to The Holy Land
2 hours
The Josephinum Diaconate Institute offers a Holy Land Pilgrimage / Study Program. This is an 8-day directed study designed to introduce deacons and deacon candidates to the holy sites of our salvation. Through participant-directed preparation and execution of the pilgrimage/ study program, students will prepare and then participate in an extensive visitation of predetermined biblical sites in Israel and the Palestinian National Authority.
Admissions

APPLICATION PROCEDURES

Application for admission to the Pontifical College Josephinum’s formation programs is made after the individual obtains written sponsorship from his diocese or religious community. Applicants must conform to the requirements and policies of the Josephinum admissions process, and to the Program of Priestly Formation, 6th Edition.

These include, but are not limited to:

- Completing the current Josephinum application form for the appropriate stage of formation.
- Verifying high school graduation or equivalent, undergraduate college or post-graduate coursework to-date, undergraduate college degree or Theological course work to-date.
- Equivalent includes completion of a home education in accordance with the requirements of the applicant’s state of residence or a General Education Development score that grants a Certificate of High School Equivalency or similarly titled credential.
- High school graduation, undergraduate, or post-graduate degrees, or coursework to-date must be verified with an official transcript issued by the degree-granting school and/or institution showing the graduation date or dates of study and sent directly from the school and/or institution to the Pontifical College Josephinum, Admissions Office. Original or photocopied transcripts provided by the student are not acceptable; certified transcripts must be received directly from the school and/or institution in their sealed envelope. If a transcript is not available, an original letter from the school registrar certifying graduation must be sent directly to the Josephinum’s Admissions Office.

The Ability to Benefit (ATB) is not offered by the Pontifical College Josephinum.

Seminarians may receive credit from other accredited colleges, universities, and seminaries. Credits are accepted only for academic courses comparable to those required by the Josephinum as determined by the appropriate academic dean (College of Liberal Arts or School of Theology). No credit will be given for courses in which the candidate has earned a grade lower than a “C.” Seminarians also may present records from United States military experience to earn possible transfer credits.

The applicant must arrange for the following requested letters, certified documents, and reports directly from the issuer to be sent to the Admissions Office:

- A written, thorough autobiography addressing the four dimensions of formation
  - Human (including aspects of family and home life, relationships with siblings and others, dating, personal growth experiences, sports, scouting, group or club memberships, leadership roles, areas of growth or struggle)
  - Spiritual (relating your prayer life, personal devotions and practices, spiritual nourishment activities, any spiritual direction, Adoration and Confession, areas of growth or struggle)
  - Intellectual (intellectual interests and pursuits, honors or awards, areas of growth or struggle)
  - Pastoral (how applicant puts his faith into action, e.g. prayer groups, working with the poor or needy, parish involvement, youth or young adult faith groups, working with seniors and/or elder care, areas of growth or struggle)
- Letters of recommendation
  - For an applicant coming from high school, submit one recommendation letter from a teacher.
  - For an applicant coming from post-secondary school, submit one recommendation letter from a professor or instructor.
  - For an applicant transferring from another seminary, submit a recommendation letter from the seminary Rector.
  - For all applicants, submit a recommendation letter from a current pastor.
- Sponsorship letter from one’s diocese or religious order/congregation;
- Results of a thorough and complete physical examination, with an up-to-date listing of completed immunizations, and vaccination records. “Medical exam should include HIV and drug testing along with screening that verifies biological maleness.” (PPF 6th Ed.)
- Results of a thorough psychological examination and profile (specific requirements are available through the Josephinum Counseling Center);
- Results of a thorough criminal background check (including FBI check).
Certified copies of Certificates of Baptism and Confirmation issued within the past six months. May be obtained from the “home parish” or parish of Baptism where sacramental records are kept and updated; they will issue and mail certified copies with the necessary raised parochial seal.

Certified birth certificate issued from local, county, or state Department of Health or similar government office. (Photocopies are not accepted.)

The admissions committee will review each completed application in coordination with the appropriate academic dean. The rector/president will inform the applicant of acceptance or non-acceptance.

Normally, only those candidates who meet the academic requirements for acceptance will be considered by the admissions committee for admission in the fall semester of that year.

Application for admission as a seminarian into the College of Liberal Arts or the School of Theology at the Josephinum is made to:

Admissions Office
Pontifical College Josephinum
7625 North High Street
Columbus, Ohio 43235-1498

Applicants for whom English is a second language are required to take the TOEFL examination. The results of this examination should be sent to the registrar’s office when applying to enter the College of Liberal Arts or School of Theology. Those who score a minimum 79 on the TOEFL iBT (Internet-based test) will be eligible for admission into the College of Liberal Arts or School of Theology.

The TOEFL examination is administered in many locations throughout the United States and abroad. For information concerning test dates and locations, contact Educational Testing Services (ETS) at https://www.ets.org/toefl

SEMINARIANS WHO ARE FOREIGN NATIONALS

All seminarians who are foreign nationals must acquire Form I-20, Certificate of Eligibility for Non-immigrant (F-1) Student Status - For Academic and Language Students. The registrar, who also serves as the Primary Designated School Official (PDSO) for immigration services, may issue a Form I-20 to an applicant only after the applicant has been accepted by the Josephinum for full-time attendance, in order to assist him in securing a visa and entering into the United States. The following must be provided to the registrar at the earliest possible date:

- Copy of personal data page from current passport
- Current email address
- Current phone number
- Home address
- Address to which official documents may be sent

ADMISSION TO THE SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY FROM THE COLLEGE OF LIBERAL ARTS OR THE PRE-THEOLOGY PROGRAM

Upon a positive recommendation from the formation committee, a Josephinum College or Pre-Theology graduate may request admission to the School of Theology by completing the following steps:

- Updating his autobiography.
- Crafting a letter to the rector/president requesting formal admission into the Master of Divinity program.
- Completing the first five pages of a new seminary application.
- Obtaining a sponsorship letter from his diocese or religious order/congregation.
- Submitting a new psychological evaluation, if the one on file is more than two years old, or if requested.
- Submitting to an updated background check (consent forms via the Admissions Office).

NON-DISCRIMINATION POLICY

The Josephinum welcomes qualified seminary candidates of any race, color, nationality, and ethnic origin to all the rights, privileges, responsibilities, programs, and activities of the seminary.
Tuition and Financial Aid

TUITION, ROOM AND BOARD, AND FEES

The Pontifical College Josephinum reserves the right to make any changes in tuition, room and board, fees, and financial arrangements. Tuition, room and board costs are set annually by the Board of Trustees.

Payment for each semester is due at the beginning of each semester, and is one-half of the amount due for the year. A penalty of 1% is assessed each month (12% per annum) on any unpaid balance at the end of the semester.

Unless otherwise specified, all fees are due and payable at the beginning of the year. A delinquency fee of $1 is assessed for each week of non-payment.

Incidental expenses for books and supplies will vary from seminarian to seminarian. It is recommended that $500 be budgeted each year for books.

WITHDRAWAL AND RETURN OF TITLE IV FUNDS (R2T4) POLICY

PROCESSING OF FEDERAL FINANCIAL AID (TITLE IV) FOR STUDENTS THAT OFFICIALLY AND UNOFFICIALLY WITHDRAW FROM THE JOSEPHINUM

How a Withdrawal Affects Financial Aid

Federal Student Aid (FSA), also known as Title IV funding, is awarded under the assumption that a student will complete course(s) for the entire semester and/or payment period for which the funds were awarded. When a student ceases attendance, officially and/or unofficially, in a course, regardless of the reason, the student may no longer be eligible for the full amount of Title IV funds originally awarded.

The return of funds to the federal government is based on the premise that financial aid is earned in proportion to the length of time during which the student attended. A pro-rated schedule determines the amount of federal aid a student has earned while attending. For example, a student who withdraws in the second week of the semester has earned less financial aid than a student who withdraws in the fifth week.

Once the 60% point in the semester/payment period is reached, a student is considered to have earned all of the financial aid originally awarded and will not be required to return any funds.

Financial aid that is processed for a student who never begins attendance in any class will be canceled.

If a recipient of Title IV funds stops attending the Josephinum after beginning attendance, the amount of Title IV assistance earned by the student must be determined. If the amount disbursed to the student is greater than the amount the student earned, the unearned funds must be returned to the federal program(s). If the amount disbursed to the student is less than the amount the student earned, and for which the student is otherwise eligible, he or she is eligible to receive a post-withdrawal disbursement of the earned aid that was not received.

Earned Versus Unearned Title IV Funding

If a student officially or unofficially withdraws, ceases attendance, or is administratively withdrawn from the Josephinum, federal regulations require the Josephinum to calculate the amount of Federal Title IV funds earned during the term from which the student withdrew.

The percent earned is equal to the number of calendar days completed up to the withdrawal (officially or unofficially) date divided by the total number of calendar days in the semester/payment period. Breaks of 5 days or longer are not included in the count of total days in the payment period.

Earned Percent = Number of Days Completed ÷ Total Days in Payment Period

Unearned Percent = 100% ÷ Earned Percent

As a result of a withdrawal, students who received federal funds will be required to repay unearned aid. The repayment calculation is performed utilizing the federal government’s repayment worksheet see following link for access to the federal worksheet: http://ifap.ed.gov/sites/default/files/attachments/2019-07/CreditHourWorksheets2017.pdf

Post-Withdrawal Disbursements

When the total amount of the Title IV assistance earned as of the withdrawal date is more than the amount that was disbursed to the student, the difference between the two amounts will be treated as a post-withdrawal disbursement.

Post-Withdrawal Disbursement of Federal Grant Funds

The Josephinum will automatically credit the student’s account with a late disbursement of Pell Grant and FSEOG funds for current institutional charges (tuition, fees, room and board). Excess funds will be refunded to the student. The post-withdrawal disbursement will be made within 45 days of the date the institution determined the student withdrew.

Post-Withdrawal Disbursement of Federal Loan Funds

If a post-withdrawal disbursement includes federal loan funds, the Josephinum must obtain the student’s, (or parent’s if a PLUS loan) permission before it can be disbursed. The borrower will be notified within 30 days of the date of determination of withdrawal of the opportunity to accept all or a part of the post-withdrawal disbursement. The student or parent has 14 days from the date of notification to respond. The Josephinum will disburse the loan funds within 180 days of the date of determination of the student’s withdrawal date. Loan funds will be applied towards the outstanding semester charges on the student’s account and may pay up to the amount of the allowable charges. Any remainder will be paid directly to the student or parent.

Determination of Withdrawal Date

The return of Title IV funds process begins when the student officially and/or unofficially withdrawals from or stops attending courses. This date is confirmed by the seminary formation faculty that tracks seminary attendance status closely. When a seminarian withdraws, voluntarily or involuntarily, from courses, he does so with close coordination with the formation faculty. All students live at the seminary and have weekly meetings with their formation advisors so this date will be closely monitored. The withdrawal date used in the return calculation of a student’s federal financial aid is the date the student began the official withdrawal process and/or the date of the student’s notification that they wish to withdraw. If a student stops attending classes without notifying the Josephinum, the withdrawal date will be the midpoint of the semester or the last date of academic activity as documented by the student’s instructor.

As all seminarians/students cannot stop attending classes without an immediate notification from the seminary formation faculty, the “F” grade procedure is not necessary to determine if a student stopped attending class and may be properly classified as a “W.”

Courses Not Started

Instructors are required to report each term whether or not a student begins/does not begin attendance in a course. If a student does not begin attendance in a course, that course must be taken out of consideration for Title IV funds. The Title IV funds will be recalculated excluding that course. Depending on the remaining hours of registration, students may have their aid partially or fully reduced. Students may also be subject to Title IV return calculations resulting in a reduction or cancellation of Title IV aid.

Students who do not plan to attend or participate in a course should drop the class prior to the start of the term (or, at the very least, within the 100% refund period) to avoid Title IV aid recalculation.

Order of Return to Federal Aid Programs

In accordance with federal regulations, unearned aid will be returned to the federal programs within 45 days of the student’s withdrawal in the following order:

- Federal Direct Unsubsidized Loan
- Federal Direct Subsidized Loan
• Federal Direct Parent Loan for Undergraduate Students (PLUS)
• Federal Pell Grant
• Federal Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grant
• Iraq and Afghanistan Service Grant

REPAYMENT OF TITLE IV FUNDS
The amount of unearned aid that must be returned by the Josephinum is a percentage of the institutional charges for the term. Once the dollar amount of the school portion of the return is determined, it is compared to the total amount of all unearned aid. If the school portion is less than the total unearned aid, then the Josephinum must return the amount of the school portion. If the calculated school portion exceeds the total unearned aid, then the Josephinum must return the amount of the total unearned aid. The Josephinum will perform a Return of Title IX funds (R2T4) calculation at the soonest available date once the student has withdrawn. Any refunds or disbursements will be provided within 14 days from the R2T4 calculation.

The student and the school are both responsible for returning unearned federal financial aid to the federal government. If a student withdraws there is a possibility that he will owe funds back to the Department of Education or state agencies that provided grants or loans. The Josephinum will return funds on the student’s behalf to the appropriate federal programs and subsequently will bill the student for any balances owed back to the Josephinum as a result of the R2T4. An email reflecting the adjustment(s) to the student’s Title IV funds and the remaining student account balance will be sent to the student. The student is responsible for any outstanding balance resulting from a R2T4 calculation. Students are encouraged to contact the Financial Aid office to make arrangements for any outstanding and/or past due balance owed to the Josephinum. Amounts of less than $50.00 owed to the Department of Education are not required to be returned by the student.

Additional Loan Information to Consider When Withdrawing
If the student is not enrolled at least half-time for more than six months, their loans will go into repayment. More specifically, the student’s six month grace period begins the day their enrollment status drops below half-time. The student must complete Student Loan Exit Counseling at studentaid.gov/exit-counseling and contact their servicer to make payment arrangements. Loans must be repaid by the loan borrower (student/parent) as outlined in the terms of the borrower’s promissory note. The student should contact the server if they have questions regarding their grace period or repayment status.

Consequences of Non-Repayment
Students who owe the US Department of Education for an overpayment (unearned due to not attending for more than 60% of the payment period) of Title IV funds are not eligible for any additional federal financial aid until the overpayment is paid in full or payment arrangements are made with the US Department of Education.

Students who owe the institution because of the return of Title IV funds calculation will not be eligible to register for subsequent semesters or receive academic transcripts until the balance is paid in full.

How a Withdrawal Affects Future Financial Aid Eligibility
Refer to the Financial Aid Office Satisfactory Academic Progress Policy (see next page) to determine how a withdrawal impacts aid eligibility.

Pontifical College Josephinum’s Tuition refund Policy

Adjusting Institutional Grants and Scholarships, Awarded Directly Through Student Financial Aid
Calculation will be based on the refund period for full term courses, at the time the student goes to zero credit hours. The amount to be returned will be rounded down if the calculation does not result in a whole dollar amount.

Return of Title IV Funds
The Josephinum will return funds to the appropriate programs as soon as administratively possible, but not later than 45 days from the day the student withdraws from classes.
FINANCIAL AID PROGRAM AND ELIGIBILITY

Realistic financial planning is an essential element of any educational experience. Due to the rising cost of education, it has become increasingly difficult for many seminarians to provide the funds necessary for higher education.

With this in mind, the primary purpose of the Financial Aid Program is to assist qualified seminarians with limited financial resources to attend the Josephinum. Thus, the Josephinum offers a wide variety of scholarships, grants, loans, and work opportunities to seminarians. Federal funds are, by statute, awarded solely on the basis of financial needs as determined by a federally approved needs analysis system. These funds are available to as many qualified seminarians as funding will allow.

SATISFACTORY ACADEMIC PROGRESS POLICY

The Josephinum is required by federal law to establish, publish and apply reasonable standards for measuring satisfactory standards of academic progress (SAP). These standards ensure successful completion of course work leading to the timely receipt of a degree. All financial aid recipients are required to meet SAP standards toward completion of certificate or degree requirements in order to be eligible for Title IV, state and institutional need-based financial aid programs. If a student who is receiving financial aid does not meet the standards as set forth in this policy, they will be ineligible for financial aid in future terms but may appeal.

The categories of students subject to the SAP policy include:
- Undergraduate students
- Graduate students

Financial aid programs subject to the SAP policy include:
- Federal Title IV programs
- State of Ohio grants and/or scholarships
- Institutional need-based grants and scholarships
- Institutional grants/scholarships programs that specifically require the student meet academic standards

The Josephinum is required to monitor student aid recipients’ academic progress based upon the qualitative and quantitative standards outlined below. It is the recipient’s responsibility to ensure they are meeting these SAP requirements to maintain financial aid eligibility.

Note: Required cumulative GPA (qualitative) and required completion rate percentage (quantitative) are evaluated for SAP annually at the conclusion of the spring term. Maximum time frame (MTF) for completion of degree requirements is monitored each term as students may reach the maximum number of hours or the maximum number of terms allowed at any point in the academic year. Students who are approaching program maximums are sent a notice when they are within 24 hours or one term of reaching their program maximums.

Qualitative Measurements

To be eligible for Title IV, state, or institutional need-based financial aid, each individual category of student must meet the minimum cumulative GPA requirements as outlined below.

Note: The minimum GPA requirement for students in the professional college represent the cumulative GPA requirements for retention by the college.

<thead>

*First Year Undergraduates who do not meet the 2.00 minimum GPA requirement at the end of the first academic year will be deemed not eligible for financial aid. Students who do not meet the GPA requirement may appeal for aid and, if approved, will need to meet the progress standards established in the approved appeal.

Quantitative Measurements

To be eligible for Title IV, state, or institutional need-based financial aid, each individual category of student must meet the established quantitative measures, completion rate and maximum time frame that are reviewed for all students receiving federal, state, or institutional need-based financial aid.

All undergraduate and graduate students are expected to complete at least 67 percent of the credit hours attempted to keep pace toward completing their degree. This is reviewed annually. Credit hours attempted include all graded courses, transferred courses, testing credits, pass/fail grades, and repeats.

All students are expected to complete their degree programs within an established maximum time frame as outlined below. A student becomes ineligible for Title IV at the point that he can no longer mathematically complete the program in the maximum time allotted. This is reviewed at the end of every semester.

Definition of Hours Attempted and Completed

Hours counted as attempted include:
- All credit hours for which the student enrolls at the Josephinum and receives any of the following grades or marks: A, B, C, D (including + and -), F, P
  - A mark or marks of W, WP, WF (denoting a class or classes dropped or total withdrawal from the school after the withdrawal date of that semester)
  - A mark or marks of I (denoting a class or classes having incomplete coursework)

Hours not counted as attempted include:
- Courses designated as audit AU (no credit or grade assigned)

Hours counted as successfully completed include:
- All credit hours for which there is a passing letter grade or mark as reflected in the student’s official transcript as certified by the school’s Registrar including A, B, C, D (including + and -), P
  - All credits accepted by credit-by-exam and by transfer from another institution

Hours not counted as successfully completed (deficiencies) include:
- All credit hours for which there is no grade/notation indicating that the course work has been successfully completed including marks of F, W, WF, and WP

Maximum Time Frame: Definition of Hours Attempted

Hours counted as attempted include:
- All credit hours for which the student enrolls at the Josephinum and receives any of the following grades or marks: A, B, C, D (including + and -), and/or F
  - A mark or marks of W, WP, WF (denoting a class or classes dropped or total withdrawal from the school after the withdrawal date for that semester)
  - A mark or marks of I (denoting a class or classes having incomplete coursework)
  - All credit by exam and hours accepted for transfer from another institution.

Advanced Placement or Credit by Examination Credit

Many undergraduate students initially enroll at the Josephinum and receive Advanced Placement (AP) or Credit by Examination credit. Under certain circumstances, this may cause students to exceed the maximum number of hours allowed in their respective academic programs prior to graduation. In this situation, an appeal may be required to reevaluate Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP).

Transfer Credits

Transfer credits that are accepted are counted for attempted and completed. The grades are not counted toward GPA or satisfactory academic progress.

Treatment of Audits, Course Repeats, and English as a Second Language & Incomplete Courses

- Audited classes are not considered “financial aid eligible,” therefore they count neither as classes attempted nor completed.
- Courses repeats:
  - A student may receive aid when repeating a course that was previously unsuccessful regardless of the number of times the course was attempted and failed. The highest grade is counted towards GPA and SAP.
  - Once a course has been successfully completed, a student can retake and receive financial aid for that same course if it is designated for “Repeat with Credit” because the content changes. Each grade counts toward GPA and SAP.
  - Any ineligible courses that are retaken will be excluded when aid is calculated.
- ESL classes are “financial aid eligible” if taken in concert with a declared major. These hours are in the attempted hours count and are marked P or F.
- Incomplete grades, once completed, will be calculated at the time the final grade is awarded. This must conform to the I-grade date suspense as listed in that semester’s I-grade deadline. Payments may be made during the semester that were affected because of the missing final grade.

Second Degrees and Double Majors

Students seeking second degrees and students with double majors may reach the maximum time frame standard at an accelerated pace under this policy. Students may appeal for the allowance of additional hours to complete their program.
All degrees are similar and vary only slightly in required and elective courses. As such, academic progress rules apply across all degrees to include second degrees and double majors. All grades from courses taken at the Josephinum apply regardless if they count toward the eventual degree completion. Transfer course grades are not included in the calculation of GPA or in SAP.

Monitoring Eligibility: Suspension and Conditions of Reinstatement

The cumulative GPA and completion percentage SAP standards are monitored annually. Maximum time frame is monitored at the end of each term. A notification is sent to students when they are within 24 hours of reaching the maximum number of hours allowed to complete their respective degree programs, or one term from reaching the maximum number of terms allowed.

When students reach or exceed the maximum number of hours or terms allowed, they are sent a notification and become immediately ineligible for financial assistance. Affected students who have reached or exceeded the hours or terms allowed due to academic program changes, changes in major, transfer hours accumulated from other schools or pursuit of a second degree (e.g., a second bachelor’s degree) can have their status reviewed by submitting an appeal.

Upon review, students who fail to meet these requirements are sent a notification to their Pontifical College Josephinum email account of their suspended status including options for appealing or regaining eligibility. Students on suspended status are ineligible for aid.

Financial Aid Suspension

Students who become ineligible for assistance can re-establish their eligibility by one of two ways:

- Attending the Josephinum at their own expense or with the help of private resources from outside the seminary until such time as they are meeting the SAP conditions (not applicable for a student who becomes ineligible due to maximum time frame)
- Successfully appealing their suspension status.

Note: Neither paying for classes nor sitting out periods of enrollment in and of themselves improves a student’s SAP standing; therefore, neither action is sufficient to regain financial aid eligibility.

Appeal of Suspension

Pontifical College Josephinum permits students to appeal the determination that they are not meeting SAP requirements. The SAP appeal must be a written letter to the Financial Aid office. The appeal must explain and document why the student failed to meet SAP and describe how the circumstances have changed that will allow them to be academically successful and meet SAP in the future. Prior to submitting an appeal, the student will need to complete a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) and be an admitted, active student at the Josephinum. The appeal and necessary supporting documentation and statements must be submitted together to the Financial Aid office for signature and initial review by the deadline for the term. Exceptions to the deadline may be made based on mitigating circumstances.

Appeals with complete documentation are reviewed and an appeal decision is made. Complete appeals are reviewed after the student’s grades are posted for the prior term. Students are notified of the appeal decision via their Josephinum email account.

Students who have their appeals granted are reinstated for financial aid eligibility on a probation status and given an academic plan that outlines the standards they must meet each term to maintain probation status. Only probation with an academic plan is available at the Josephinum. The probation will last one payment period unless the progress standards can only be met by more than one payment plan. Students will remain on probation status for the length of their academic plan provided they meet the conditions of their academic plan each term. If the terms of the academic plan are not met, the student will be notified they have returned to a suspended status and are ineligible for aid.

The decision of the Appeals Committee is final.

The Josephinum reviews the cumulative academic record of continuing students who are first-time applicants to determine if they are meeting the SAP requirements. If they have not met the SAP requirements they are notified and placed on suspended status.

Reinstatement of Eligibility

Students are reinstated on probation status based on the terms outlined in approved appeals.

FINANCIAL AID PROCEDURE

A free application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) must be completed for a seminarian to be considered for any of the programs listed.

The FAFSA is to be filed online at the Department of Education website, www.fafsa.gov. After the FAFSA form is filed, processed information will be returned for review. Any corrections may be made at the www.fafsa.gov website or the signed Student Aid Report may be submitted to the financial aid office where corrections may be made electronically.

The director of financial aid will post awards in the Populi system for students to review and accept.

Financial Aid Programs

Eligibility for specific financial aid programs considers the program (college, pre-theology, theology) in which the seminarian is enrolled.

GRANTS, LOANS, AND SCHOLARSHIPS

Federal Pell Grant Program

This grant is awarded only to undergraduate seminarians who have not earned a bachelor or professional degree, who have filed the FAFSA and demonstrated financial need. Currently, grant amounts range from $639.00 to $6,345.00. Pell Grant funds can be used only for tuition, and room and board.
Federal Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grant – FSEOG

The FSEOG is awarded first to those seminarians receiving a Pell Grant, then to those seminarians with the lowest family contribution. The FSEOG can range from $700 to $1,400. The grant can only be used for undergraduate tuition, and room and board.

Federal Work-Study Program – FWS

The FWS program provides jobs on campus for seminarians who have filed the FAFSA and demonstrated financial need. Qualified seminarians are placed in suitable positions (clerical, maintenance, kitchen, library, etc.) for at least minimum wage. Seminarians may work a maximum of 20 hours per week while school is in session. Paychecks are distributed monthly to assist with personal and living expenses. No advances are given.

Ohio College Opportunity Grant – OCOG

Ohio resident undergraduates who are first-time freshman and who check the appropriate state box indicating Ohio residency on the FAFSA will be considered for this need-based grant. Applications must be completed prior to the State of Ohio’s deadline of October 1.

Federal Direct Loan

The Josephinum participates in the William D. Ford Federal Director Loan Program. In this program, the United States Department for Education lends money directly to seminarians and parents through the Josephinum. The amount of these low interest loans is based on financial need and academic grade level.

Pennsylvania Higher Education Assistance Agency – PHEAA

Seminarians from Pennsylvania may apply to PHEAA for this state grant. Applications may be obtained directly from PHEAA’s web site at www.pheaa.com.

The following information is general Josephinum policy. Detailed information specific to the College of Liberal Arts, Pre-Theology Program or School of Theology is contained in those sections of this catalog.

Academic Year and Instructional Time

The academic year is comprised of two semesters of approximately 15 weeks each. For each credit hour there ordinarily are 750 contact minutes throughout the semester.

Assigned Work

Seminarians generally are expected to devote two hours of study for every hour they spend in class. Professors are expected to exercise prudent judgment in assigning coursework.

Mid-Term and Final Examinations

All required courses in the College of Liberal Arts and the School of Theology will require an exercise to assess performance before the completion of the mid-term break, such as a single mid-term (oral or written) examination, a paper, a series of quizzes, or other types of performance evaluation.

All required courses will require a graded final assignment which cannot be substituted with a series of prior quizzes given after the mid-term. This assignment may be a written or an oral exam, a paper, a classroom presentation, or some other means of performance evaluation.

All required courses must require either a written mid-term examination or a written final examination. If the format of the mid-term or the final is an oral examination, then in either case an oral examination may not be scheduled for less than 15 minutes in length for each seminarian.

A take-home exam does NOT replace a class period. Take-home exams need to be returned to the professor by the last day of class before a break and should not be assigned on the last day of class before a break. The amount of time to write the take-home exam should not exceed the time allotted for one class session (1 hour and 15 minutes for a midterm exam; 2 hours for a final exam).

All 3-credit core courses in the School of Theology are required to meet during the final week of the semester, designated as final exam week.

The 2-hour final exam period may be used to administer written exams, oral exams, for the purposes of student presentations, or for the purpose of covering course material, but in order to meet the requirements of a 15-week semester, the scheduled meeting time during the final exam week must be utilized. Elective courses will not have exam sessions scheduled during finals week.

If an oral exam is given during finals week, it must be scheduled on the day where the two-hour exam period appears on the final exam schedule and it must be administered between the beginning of the first exam period and the end of the last exam period on that day. If an oral exam is given as a mid-term or any other time during the semester except for finals week, it must replace not more or less than one class session, and any additional time needed for the oral exams must be scheduled during the same week during the regular hours assigned for classes.

For the College of Liberal Arts, all instructors/proctors must meet their classes for the final exam period scheduled by the registrar. If an in-class final exam is not given then all instructors must meet their classes for the entire exam period scheduled by the registrar.

Oral exams must be given during the regular hours assigned for classes. Oral exams during finals week must be given during the final exam slot assigned by the registrar. If additional time is required, oral exams must be given during the time-period within the schedule for final exams [i.e. on days when exams are being given within the confines of the daily final exam schedule]. For oral exams as mid-terms, instructors must use one class session during 1 This is the general standard of the accrediting bodies of the Josephinum and the Ohio Department of Education.

2 The following guidelines may offer further assistance, particularly in philosophy and theology courses, and are offered for faculty members’ consideration (course readings vary widely in complexity and difficulty, and faculty must use their professional judgment in assigning readings). The reading for class sessions should not exceed on average the equivalent of forty (40) pages of actual reading per week for three (3) credit courses and a proportional number for one and a half (1½) credit courses in both houses. Thus many more pages can be assigned if the actual texts to be read within these pages do not exceed this total. If there are no papers assigned in a course, an additional ten (10) such pages of reading can be assigned on average per week.
Written Assignments

Paper assignments for the College of Liberal Arts should be a reasonable length of 8-10 pages. Research papers for Writing II and senior seminars may be a longer length of approximately 12-20 pages.

Reading Assignments

Reading assignments for class sessions should be of a length that can be accomplished within the time frame described previously in the section on “Assigned Work.”

Academic Honesty

Academic honesty is expected of all seminarians. Academic dishonesty is both a serious academic and formational issue.

Academic dishonesty occurs when a seminarian cheats on an examination, project, report, or written assignment. It includes plagiarism, which occurs when a seminarian uses another writer’s words, information, or ideas without giving credit to the source of that material. In effect, the seminarian creates a false impression that these words or ideas are his original work. Any seminarian who is uncertain about plagiarism and standard methods of giving credit to sources of material should consult the most recent edition of A Manual for Writers by Kate L. Turabian and request help from the course instructor or the Writing Center.

A related form of academic dishonesty would occur if a seminarian fabricates research material, providing notes and bibliography entries for books or articles that do not exist or that the seminarian has not consulted.

Academic dishonesty is also present when one seminarian assists another seminarian in cheating or plagiarism, such as providing a seminarian with a copy of an upcoming exam or writing a paper for another seminarian who turns it in as his own work. Incidents of academic dishonesty are to be reported by the instructor to the appropriate academic dean, who will notify the respective vice rector and the rector/president.

The consequences of academic dishonesty in a particular course may range from failure on the exams or assignment in which the dishonesty happened, to failure in the entire course.

A seminarian who believes that he has been accused of academic dishonesty unjustly may follow the procedure outlined under Academic Due Process.

Credit Load

All courses are taught on a semester basis; credits are earned in terms of semester hours. Units of credit are given for courses in which the seminarian’s achievement is graded. Seminarians may also take elective courses on a Pass/Fail basis and thus would earn either a P (Pass) or an F (Fail).

The normal academic load seminarians are permitted to take during a semester is 12 to 18 credit hours. A seminarian who wishes to carry a greater number of credit hours in a semester must obtain permission from the appropriate academic dean, who may consult with the seminarian’s formation advisor. Such permission is usually granted if the seminarian’s cumulative GPA is 3.0 or better.

Adding a Course

A seminarian may add a course to his schedule only during the first full week of each semester. To do so, seminarians must obtain the approval of the appropriate academic dean.

Dropping a Course

A seminarian may drop a course during the first three weeks of the semester. Courses may not be dropped after the third full week of classes. Dropping a course during the first three weeks removes all record of the course from the seminarian’s transcript. Any seminarian withdrawing from a course after the initial three weeks ordinarily receives a failure in that course. Such a failure is computed into the seminarian’s GPA.

After the three week period, and before the end of the semester, if a seminarian believes that he must withdraw from a course and should not receive a failing grade, he should first consult with his formation advisor and then submit a written petition to the appropriate academic dean, stating the special circumstances that warrant a withdrawal from the course without penalty. The academic dean will seek the recommendation of the professor before granting or denying the petition.

Auditing a Course

A seminarian may register to audit a course through the registrar’s office, with the written approval of the instructor and the appropriate academic dean.

A seminarian who audits a course is not required to complete assignments, write papers, or take exams. Ordinarily he must attend all classes. The seminarian does not receive course credit, and no grade is given for the course; the transcripts will indicate the audit. Audited courses are not counted toward fulfillment of graduation requirements.

For a given course, a seminarian may not change from credit to audit or from audit to credit status after the first week of the semester. A seminarian who has previously enrolled as an auditor may take the course for credit during any succeeding semester, with the permission of the appropriate academic dean who may consult with the seminarian’s formation advisor. If a previously audited course is subsequently taken for credit, the earned grade will be entered on the transcript for that semester. The original audit (AUD) notation on the transcript will be expunged at that time.

Repetition of a Course

A seminarian may repeat any course. A seminarian must repeat any required course in which he receives a failing grade. When a course is repeated, the previous grade will be followed by the letter “R” (repeat) on the transcript (e.g. F/R); only the most recent grade will be counted as credit earned toward graduation requirements and in the calculation of the cumulative GPA.
Taking a Course as Pass/Fail

Other than some required practica courses, the pass/fail option is limited to electives. This option enables a seminarian to venture beyond the field of personal specialization without affecting his GPA. This option is allowed for only one course per semester. The permission of the professor of the course and the approval of the appropriate academic dean is required in each instance. These permissions must be obtained during the first three weeks of the semester.

Pass/Fail grades refer only to the final grade in the course, which will be entered as P (Pass) or F (Fail) on a seminarian’s transcript, but will not be counted in his cumulative GPA. Normal course work, assignments and examinations are given to any seminarian taking a course on a Pass/Fail basis. Academic performance for Pass/Fail enrollees will be evaluated by the same standard used for the seminarians taking the course for a grade.

Directed Independent Studies

Occasionally the academic deans will approve a Directed Independent Study (DIS). This is a situation in which a seminarian receives individual instruction from a faculty member and receives course credit for this work. Normally a DIS is arranged only for exceptional circumstances (e.g., when a seminarian who has transferred into the Josephinum from another institution needs to take a course in order to graduate on time, and the course is not offered in the regular course schedule at a time that the seminarian is able to enroll in the course before the date of graduation). Only academic deans may determine whether a DIS is warranted and only the deans may make arrangements for a DIS. If a seminarian desires to pursue a DIS, he should approach the appropriate academic dean to inquire about the possibility. No seminarian may approach a faculty member to arrange a DIS without first seeking permission from the appropriate academic dean. If a faculty member is approached by a seminarian about the possibility of offering a DIS, the faculty member must direct the seminarian to speak with the appropriate academic dean.

Class Attendance

Attendance at class meetings at the scheduled times is mandatory. Seminarians are required to attend all class sessions unless excused. Instructors should inform the respective academic dean of any unexcused absences. The academic dean will notify the respective dean of men as well as the seminarian’s formation advisor. Any unexcused absences may result in a corresponding reduction of the seminarian’s final grade for the course, in accord with any applicable policies and procedures outlined in the course syllabus. Excessive unexcused absences may result in failure of the course. Since unexcused absences entail a shortcoming in the stewardship of the significant tuition expenditures committed by the sponsoring diocese and made possible by the sacrifices of the people in the sponsoring diocese, unexcused absences are a matter to be recorded and addressed by the individual seminarian’s formation advisor and will be referenced in the annual formation report.

Seminarians are expected to arrive on time for all class sessions. If a seminarian is late, he may be refused admission to the class, according to the wishes of the instructor.

A seminarian who is absent, without an official excuse, from a final examination is given a zero for the examination. This zero will be calculated into the seminarian’s final grade for the course. If the seminarian’s absence from a final examination is excused, the seminarian is given a grade of “I” (incomplete). The seminarian will be permitted to take the examination at a time specified by the instructor. Any “I” must be removed before the end of the fourth week of the subsequent semester or it automatically becomes an “F”.

The registrar provides all instructors with an official class list. No seminarian who has not registered for credit or for an audit is to attend a class without permission from the instructor of the course. Instructors are to inform the registrar of any discrepancies between the course roster and the seminarians in attendance.

Excused Absences

In order for an absence to be officially excused, seminarians must follow the principles and procedures contained in the seminary Rule of Life.

Requesting the Postponement of Assignments

Seminarians who seek to postpone the due date of an assignment are required to request permission from their professor via email, copying the respective academic dean.

GRADING SCALE AND ACADEMIC STANDING

Report of Grades

The registrar prepares a formal report of the seminarian’s academic achievement at the end of each term. This report is mailed to the seminarian’s director of vocations and his bishop or religious superior, and is reviewed by the academic dean, the seminarian’s formation advisor and the president/rector.

Grading Policy

The final grade a seminarian receives for the semester represents the instructor’s considered judgment of the seminarian’s mastery of the course material. Normally, this grade will be determined by the combined results of course work, which may include recitations, oral reports, quizzes, examinations and other assignments.

Incomplete (I) Grades

An incomplete (I) grade can be assigned only when an illness, death in the family, or other unusual and unforeseeable circumstance not encountered by other seminarians, prevents completion of the course requirements by the end of the semester. Incomplete grades usually are given only due to extenuating, unavoidable, or uncontrollable circumstances. Incomplete grades may be granted by a professor in consultation with the appropriate academic dean.

Any seminarian receiving an incomplete in any course has four weeks into the next semester to complete the work and remove the incomplete. After four weeks, he receives an “F” in the course, which is computed into his GPA.
Academic Due Process

Seminarians with serious academic complaints may seek to address these complaints formally according to the following academic due process. An appeal of an assigned course grade should always be based on evidence of unfair academic evaluation; simple disagreement with an instructor’s grading policies does not constitute cause for appeal. Seminarians having reason to appeal an assigned course grade may do so according to the following procedures. Seminarians with other serious academic complaints may seek to formally address these complaints according to these same procedures.

The procedures are as follows: the seminarian consults with the faculty member involved. If the matter is not resolved, the seminarian consults the appropriate academic dean, who then will consult with the faculty member involved. If the dean is the instructor involved, this consultation will take place with the appropriate vice rector. If the matter is not satisfactorily resolved thereby, the seminarian may request (in writing) a hearing before an ad hoc committee of three persons: the academic dean (or the vice rector if it is the grade from the dean which is being appealed), a full-time faculty member appointed by the dean (or vice rector), and a full-time faculty member chosen by the seminarian. The dean (or the vice rector if the complaint involves the academic dean) serves as chair. The instructor involved does not serve on this committee.

The seminarian’s written request must be made within the first four weeks of the semester following the assignment of the disputed grade or the semester in which the complaint was raised. The request should include appropriate documentation of the complaint. The ad hoc committee will meet within two weeks of the academic dean’s (vice rector’s) inability to resolve the disagreement.

Both the seminarian and the faculty member involved have the right to appear personally before the committee to present their views. After evaluating the evidence and possibly discussing the situation with other members of the class or members of the involved department, the committee shall, by majority vote, recommend a solution. Notice of the committee’s recommendation shall be sent in writing to the faculty member, the seminarian, and in the case of a disputed grade, the registrar, within two days.

If a grade is disputed, the recommendation to the seminarian may be that the grade is judged fair, or to the faculty member that a different grade is judged appropriate. Final authority for changing a grade rests with the faculty member. If the committee recommends such a change, the faculty member must notify the registrar in writing, within one week, of his/her compliance or non-compliance with the recommendation.

If the seminarian remains dissatisfied with the result of a disputed grade, he may request that the registrar insert in his file a letter describing the process and its outcome.

Grade Point Average

The seminarian’s grade point average is determined by dividing the total number of points earned by the total number of classes attempted. Pass/Fail courses are not included in the GPA. Grades for transitional courses are not included in the GPA. The maximum grade point average attainable is 4.0.

Dean’s List

At the end of each semester, the names of those seminarians who are carrying a full load in an academic program, and who have achieved a grade point average for that semester of 3.5 or better and have no grade lower than a “C,” are posted on the Dean’s List.

Academic Standing and Academic Probation

Seminarians are to maintain the proper academic standing required by the Pontifical College Josephinum. A seminarian’s academic standing is measured by his grade point average.

The minimum GPA necessary to avoid academic probation is 2.0. The academic deans will place a seminarian on academic probation if the seminarian’s GPA in any one semester, or his cumulative GPA, falls below 2.0. The academic dean will notify the seminarian, the seminarian’s formation advisor, and the respective vice rector regarding the academic probation.

In the College of Liberal Arts, if a seminarian is on academic probation for two consecutive semesters, at the midterm break of the following (third) semester the college faculty will vote to forward a recommendation to the rector/president that the seminarian not return to the seminary for the next semester, unless he can improve his academic performance enough to remove himself from academic probation. The academic dean will write the seminarian a letter notifying him of his probationary status and of this policy.

In the School of Theology, if a seminarian is on academic probation for two consecutive semesters, then the seminarian normally will not be allowed to return to the seminary.

TRANSFER CREDIT ELIGIBILITY

Only courses taken at a nationally or regionally accredited institution will be considered for transfer credit. These credits will be evaluated by the appropriate academic dean’s office, and potentially accepted, insofar as a final grade of at least a “C-” (or its equivalent) for the College of Liberal Arts or a “C” for the School of Theology was earned, and the course is recognized by the relevant academic dean as comparable in rigor and content to those offered at the Josephinum. This grade must be verified by an official transcript which will be housed in the registrar’s office.

The College of Liberal Arts will accept credit for online university coursework when a seminarian who is already enrolled at the Josephinum has gained prior approval of the academic dean and vice rector (who may consult with seminarian’s vocation director), and has properly enrolled in and completed the course at an accredited institution, in consultation with his advisor.

The Josephinum makes distinctions regarding transfer credits depending upon the nature of the course in question and its relationship to priestly ministry. The purpose here is to expedite the seminarian’s progression through the academic program by not requiring him to take extraneous courses and, simultaneously, to provide him with the distinctive education that is necessary for his discernment and vocation.

COLLEGE OF LIBERAL ARTS TRANSFER CREDIT

Non-Transferable Courses

In the College of Liberal Arts two courses are non-transferable due to their distinctive nature for the Josephinum’s curriculum: Thomistic Seminar (PHIL 496) and Humanities Seminar (HUMN 485). All other transfer credit coursework will be granted based solely on evaluation by the College academic dean.

Advanced Placement Credit (AP Credit)

The Josephinum recognizes Advanced Placement (AP) credits for seminarians entering the College of Liberal Arts directly from high school. Successful completion of an AP course must be demonstrated by the official results of a corresponding AP examination. A score of at least 4 on the AP exam is required in order for academic credit to be awarded. The results of AP examinations should be forwarded to the registrar’s office as part of the admissions process.

SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY TRANSFER CREDIT

In the School of Theology, in accordance with accreditation standards, two-thirds of the credits required for the Master of Divinity degree or the Master of Arts in Theology degree may be granted on the basis of transfer credits.

Due to the Josephinum’s mission to train priests for the Roman Catholic priesthood, the School of Theology establishes two distinct tiers for accepting transfer credits. One tier is for credits that come from accredited Roman Catholic seminaries and the other is for courses that come from other accredited institutions.

Credits from accredited Roman Catholic seminaries will be accepted insofar as a seminarian earns a final grade of at least a “C” (or its equivalent) and provided that the content of these courses is compatible with the requirements of the Josephinum.

Credits from other accredited institutions will be accepted insofar as a seminarian earns a final grade of at least a “C,” and provided that the content of these courses is compatible with the requirements of the Josephinum and Roman Catholic doctrine, as determined by the academic dean of the School of Theology.
DISSEMINATION OF INFORMATION

Protection of Information Policy
The Josephinum has the responsibility of supervising access to information about its seminarians. Certain information about individual seminarians is fundamental to the education process and must be recorded. This information is used only for clearly defined purposes, is safeguarded to avoid violations of personal privacy, and is properly disposed of when justification for its retention no longer exists.

In this regard, the Josephinum is committed to protecting to the maximum extent possible the right of privacy of all individuals about whom it maintains records. Access to and release of such records is restricted to the seminarian concerned, to others with the seminarian’s written consent, to officials within the school, to a court of competent jurisdiction, and otherwise pursuant to legal requirements.

The Josephinum complies with the provisions of the Student Right to Know Act and Campus Security Act, and amendments thereto.

Privacy and Release of Student Education Records (FERPA)

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974, as amended, sets forth requirements designed to protect the privacy of student educational records. The law governs access to records maintained by educational institutions and the release of information from those records. A notice is given to newly enrolled students at the start of each fall semester to explain the rights of students with respect to records maintained by the Josephinum. It also outlines the Josephinum’s procedures that ensure compliance with the requirements of the Act (www.ed.gov/policy/gen/guid/fpco/ferpa/index.html).

1. Right to Inspect and Review
Students are granted the right to inspect and review all of their education records, except the following:

a. Financial records of parents.
b. Confidential letters and statements of recommendation placed in education records prior to January 1, 1975.
c. Confidential letters and statements of recommendations for admission, employment, or honorary recognition placed in education records after January 1, 1975, for which students have waived their right of access.

2. Waiver of Rights of Access
Students may waive their right of access to confidential letters and statements of recommendation. Even if the student signs a waiver, upon request, the names of all persons making confidential recommendations will be made available. Employees or agents of the Josephinum may not require a student to waive his or her right of access for receipt of school benefits or services.

3. Procedures for Inspection and Review

a. Requests to review records must be made separately, in writing, to each office maintaining records. That office has 45 days to respond to requests to review and inspect. However, arrangements will be made as expeditiously as possible.

b. Information contained in education records will be explained fully and interpreted to students by Josephinum personnel assigned to, and designated by, the appropriate office.

c. Students have the right to review only their own records. When a record contains information about more than one student, disclosure cannot include information regarding the other student(s).

4. Right to Challenge Information in Records

a. Students have a right to challenge the content of their education records if they consider the information contained therein to be inaccurate, misleading, or inappropriate.
b. This process includes an opportunity for amendment of the records or insertion of written explanations by the student into such records.
c. The right to challenge grades does not apply under the Act unless the grade assigned was inaccurately recorded, under which condition the record will be corrected.

5. Procedures for Hearing to Challenge Records

a. Students challenging information in their records must submit, in writing, a request for a hearing to the appropriate office maintaining the record, listing the specific information in question and the reasons for the challenge.
b. Hearings will be conducted by a Josephinum official who does not have a direct interest in the outcome of the hearing.
c. Students shall be afforded a full and fair opportunity to present evidence relevant to the reasons for the challenge (as referenced in number 4).
d. The hearing officer will render a decision, in writing, noting the reason and summarizing all evidence presented within a reasonable period of time after the challenge is filed.
e. Should the hearing be in favor of the student, the record shall be amended accordingly. Should the request be denied, an appeal may be made, submitted in writing, to the Josephinum registrar within 10 days of the student’s notification of the decision of the hearing officer. The appeal shall be heard by an Appeals Board of three disinterested senior officials of the institution and a decision rendered, in writing, within a reasonable period of time.
f. Should the appeal be in favor of the student, the record shall be amended accordingly. Should the request be denied, the student may choose to place a statement with the record commenting on the accuracy of the information in the record and/or setting forth any basis for inaccuracy. When disclosed to an authorized party, the record will always include the student’s statement and notice of the Board’s decision, for as long as the student’s record is maintained by the Josephinum.

g. Should the appeal be in favor of the student, the record shall be amended accordingly. Should the request be denied, the student may choose to place a statement with the record commenting on the accuracy of the information in the record and/or setting forth any basis for inaccuracy. When disclosed to an authorized party, the record will always include the student’s statement and notice of the Board’s decision, for as long as the student’s record is maintained by the Josephinum.

6. Consent for Release Required

Consent must be obtained from students for the release of information from education records, specifying what is to be released, the reasons for release, and to whom, with a copy of the record sent to the student if he or she desires.

7. Release Without Consent

a. The requirement for consent does not apply to the following:
i. Requests from faculty and staff of the Josephinum who have a legitimate education interest on a “need to know” basis, including student employees or agents of the institution, if necessary to conduct official business, as authorized by the Josephinum registrar. Legitimate educational interest includes performing a task related to the regular duties of the employee or agent, the student’s education, the discipline of a student, a service or benefit for the student, or maintaining safety and security of the campus.

ii. Requests in compliance with a lawful subpoena or judicial order.

iii. Requests in connection with a student’s application for or receipt of financial aid.

iv. Requests by state authorities and agencies specifically exempted from the prior consent requirements by the Act, such as organizations conducting studies on behalf of the Josephinum, if such studies do not permit the personal identification of students to any persons other than to representatives of such organizations and if the personal identification data is destroyed when no longer needed.

v. Information submitted to accrediting organizations.

vi. Requests by parents of a dependent student, as defined in Section 152 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954.

vii. In the case of emergencies, the Josephinum may release information from education records to appropriate persons in connection with an emergency, if the knowledge of such information is necessary to protect the health or safety of a student or other persons.

viii. To authorized federal officials who have need to audit and evaluate federally-supported programs.

ix. The results of any disciplinary proceeding conducted by the Josephinum against an alleged perpetrator of a crime of violence to the alleged victim of that crime.

x. Requests for “directory information” (see number 8).

b. The Josephinum reserves the right to verify the accuracy of any information contained in what purports to be an official Josephinum document (e.g. a transcript or diploma) or is provided to a third party. In addition, degrees (any honors, majors, minors and specializations) are considered public information since they are conferred in a public ceremony.

b. Students have the right to have this directory information withheld from the public if they so desire. A student who wishes directory information to be withheld must notify the registrar in writing.

c. The Josephinum receives many inquiries for “directory information” from a variety of sources, including friends, parents, relatives, prospective employers, other institutions of higher education, honor societies, licensing agencies, government agencies, and the news media. Each student is advised to carefully consider the consequences of a decision to withhold “directory information.” The Josephinum, in all good faith, will not release directory information requested to be withheld, and any requests from persons or organizations outside the Josephinum will be refused unless the student provides written consent for the release.

9. Complaints, Concerns or Suggestions

Any student who has reason to believe that the Josephinum is not complying with the Act or this policy should inform the registrar in writing. The registrar shall promptly review all such allegations.

Transcript Requests

The registrar page of the Josephinum website www.pjc.edu/registrar has a link for transcript requests to an online service called Parchment for former seminarians. The registrar page also has a link for current seminarians requesting a transcript to a form to complete and submit to the registrar.

Record Retention

The permanent record on each seminarian, kept perpetually at the seminary, contains the following documents:

- Final formation advisor’s evaluation, self-evaluation and rector/ president’s cover letter
- Original admissions application
- Admissions autobiography
- Declaration of Freedom
- Official sacramental records
- Letter of acceptance
- Background check
- VIRTUS information

Seminarian Services

ENGLISH-AS-A-SECOND-LANGUAGE SERVICES (ESLS)

All non-native speakers of English are required to take the official Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) within six months of their application date. Seminarians with scores older than six months will be required to retake the exam. TOEFL iBT (Internet-based test) scores are used for admission purposes, while TOEFL ITP (paper-based test) scores are later used for placement into classes.

Advanced-Level ESL

The Josephinum offers instruction and support to seminarians who test at the advanced level of ESL (below 78 but above 60 on the TOEFL iBT). Advanced ESL instruction includes instruction in listening, speaking, grammar, reading, and writing. At the advanced level, seminarians in ESL courses also take at least one college/theology course.

Full-Time Study in the College of Liberal Arts and the School of Theology

After seminarians have achieved a TOEFL iBT score of 79 (ITP score of 550), they may enroll in a full-time college/theology schedule. ESL support is available to all non-native speakers.

ESL Seminarians and the Master of Divinity Program

The Master of Divinity (MDiv) degree is academically demanding. ESL seminarians must acquire cross-cultural awareness and graduate-level English language skills in order to succeed in this advanced theological degree program.

For the ESL seminarian, the standard for entry into the MDiv program, assuming that Pre-Theology Program standards have already been met, is a composite TOEFL score of:

- 79 on the TOEFL iBT (Internet-based test)
- 550 on the TOEFL ITP (paper-based test)

ESL seminarians should not take MDiv courses without having first attained this score. Seminarians without the required minimum TOEFL scores will take ESL courses until they attain the target score.

The academic deans, in consultation with the ESL instructor, deans of men, and formation advisors, will establish a course of study for each ESL seminarian.

LEARNING SERVICES

Learning Services aid seminarians who are experiencing academic difficulty by identifying the areas of difficulty and providing assistance. Such services include assistance with study skills, writing, and time management.

The Josephinum provides reasonable accommodations to seminarians with diagnosed and documented learning disabilities. Any need for reasonable accommodations should be brought to the attention of the appropriate academic dean. In order to provide the most appropriate reasonable accommodations, the Josephinum may require diagnostic testing, with the agreement of the sending diocese.

Seminarians with a documented learning disability who wish to request reasonable academic accommodations should first contact the appropriate academic dean to request these accommodations, and then meet with any instructors in whose courses they are requesting accommodations. Accommodation arrangements should be made during the first two weeks of the semester; accommodations are not retroactive. Students must contact the academic dean during the first two weeks of every semester in which accommodations are requested.

Should a seminarian with a diagnosed learning disability need specialized assistance, this assistance will be provided by a specialist whose services will be billed to the seminarian’s sending diocese.

HEALTH SERVICES

The Health Center is staffed on weekdays by a registered nurse who also serves as the coordinator of health services. Health care provided includes assessment, nurse-directed interventions, medical referrals, and immunizations. More extensive medical care is scheduled through the school nurse. Several excellent health care facilities are available in the Columbus area.

An annual health fair focuses on preventive wellness education, including blood pressure, blood sugar, and cholesterol screening.

All seminarians are required to have health insurance. Seminarians who do not have coverage through their diocese or parents are required to purchase the school’s health insurance plan.

COUNSELING SERVICES

The Josephinum has a licensed professional counselor who serves as the director of psychological evaluation and counseling services. The counselor provides confidential help to seminarians, both individually and in groups, on a broad range of personal issues.

Seminarians are encouraged to use these services, both to resolve personal and emotional issues that may arise and to pursue that wholeness of their humanity to which Christ calls them.
Information about the Josephinum

ACCREDITATION

The Pontifical College Josephinum’s most recent Certificate of Authorization from the Ohio Board of Regents is available for view upon request in the Registrar’s Office.

ATS Continues Josephinum Accreditation for Seven Years

The Association of Theological Schools ATS issued its comprehensive report after an October, 2021 evaluation. It renewed the Josephinum’s accreditation for a reduced period of seven years on account of a warning about the need for more detailed and robust planning. The report praises the academic programs of the Josephinum, but notes substantial need for forward planning and enrollment recovery. Click here to read the ATS findings.

HLC Continues Josephinum Accreditation with Probation

In June 2022, after an evaluation visit in October 2021, the Higher Learning Commission (HLC) notified the seminary that its new status is “Accredited—On Probation”. This means that the Josephinum remains accredited while it works to meet several standards of accreditation in which the HLC deemed the Josephinum’s performance to be insufficient. While under probation—a temporary status expected to be rectified by the end of 2023—the seminary remains fully accredited, and none of its formation or academic programs has been cited in the areas of concern. The one exception to this was a note that the seminary had not sought accreditation status for the new MAPS program (offered through the Josephinum Diaconate Institute) with the HLC, but this matter has already been resolved, and the HLC added the MAPS program to our accredited offerings in March of 2022. Click here to read the HLC findings.

With the help of the HLC, the Josephinum has begun the process of improvement in expectation of having the probationary status lifted after a scheduled evaluation in November 2023. Many of the same issues raised by our accreditors have surfaced through our own extensive self-study process. Chief among these concerns is the renewal of the seminary’s strategic planning, its relationships with sending dioceses, and its internal operating structures.

After a long process of consultation, the Board of Trustees is expected to release its new strategic plan in the fall of 2022. Board planning is essential to make the best of the seminary’s resources and to ensure that all the efforts of the Josephinum community are directed toward our mission to prepare holy, generous, adaptable, and resilient priests for the 21st century. The new strategic plan will provide the structure and momentum to maintain the Josephinum’s priestly formation program at the highest standard, and so to help it forge new relationships with sending dioceses across the country. Also, in order to improve its internal operations, the Josephinum administration, faculty, and staff have begun to incorporate new governing documents into our institutional life.

In January 2022 the Josephinum received approval for its new constitution, which reforms the seminary in light of the 2016 Ratio fundamentalis issued by the Congregation for the Clergy in Rome. This is already the culmination of many years’ effort, and leads directly to the re-drafting of the documents that govern our communal life. The process of adapting our internal structures will lead to better shared governance and greater clarity for all the Josephinum’s community members.

As we enter this period of probation with the HLC, the Josephinum expects to meet and/or exceed the expectations of our accrediting partners as we renew the seminary’s commitment to serving the universal Church.

The Josephinum is authorized to award Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Philosophy, Bachelor of Sacred Theology (in affiliation with the Pontifical University of Saint Thomas Aquinas (Angelicum) in Rome, Italy), Master of Arts, and Master of Divinity degrees through either the College of Liberal Arts or the School of Theology, respectively. It offers pastoral certificates and a Master of Arts in Pastoral Studies through the Josephinum Diaconate Institute.

INFORMATION FOR VETERANS

Veterans’ Affairs Status
The Josephinum is approved to enroll veterans under the Veterans’ Readjustment Assistance Act, 1952, P.L. 500; authorized under federal laws to enroll non-immigrant alien seminarians; and designated the sponsor of an Exchange-Visitor Program in accordance with the Mutual Educational and Cultural Exchange Act of 1961.

The Josephinum complies with the Veterans’ Benefits and Transition Act of 2018. Seminarians will be permitted to attend courses during any period after submitting a Certificate of Eligibility (COE) for entitlement to educational assistance under chapter 31 or 33 and ending on the earlier of the following dates:

1. The date on which the payment from the VA is made to the institution.

2. 90 days after the date the institution certified tuition and fees following the receipt of the COE.

No penalties will be imposed, including late fees, the denial of access to classes, libraries, or other institutional facilities, or the requirement that a covered individual borrow additional funds, on any covered individual because of the individual’s inability to meet his financial obligations to the institution due to the delayed disbursement of funding from the Department of Veterans Affairs under chapter 31 or 33. A student will not be prevented from attending courses while the school is awaiting payment for an approved VA request.

Veterans’ Benefits
Many benefits are available to veterans, children of deceased veterans, and those disabled in military service. In addition to the benefits directly offered by the Veterans Administration, other benefits are available through various service organizations, such as the American Legion, Veterans of Foreign Wars, and the Catholic War Veterans, and directly through the branches of the Armed Services.

Any possible claim of benefits resulting from the current or past military service of the seminarian or a member of the family should be investigated. This program is supervised by the registrar.

Please submit a current status of benefits found on the VA website https://benefits.va.gov/benefits/. An account must be created to use this site.
The Josephinum owes its existence to the vision of a zealous German immigrant priest, Monsignor Joseph Jessing (1836-1899), and to the generosity of many Catholics throughout the United States who helped him carry out his dream of preparing priests to serve Catholic immigrant parishes in America.

John Joseph Jessing was born in the city of Muenster, in Westphalia, Germany, on November 17, 1836. His father died when he was only four years old, plunging the family into poverty. At age 14, Jessing left school and started working as a lithographer to support his mother and younger brother. He later joined the Prussian army, distinguishing himself as a soldier and earning five medals for bravery.

When his mother died in 1867, Jessing left Westphalia and sailed for America, with the intention of becoming a priest and of serving the Church in the United States. In Germany, Jessing's age and lack of formal education prevented him from studying for the priesthood; in America, he would be free to respond to that vocation.

Soon after arriving in Baltimore, Maryland, he set out for Cincinnati, Ohio, where there was a strong German-speaking community. He entered Mount Saint Mary's Seminary in Cincinnati and, after three years of study, was ordained on July 16, 1870. He was made pastor of Sacred Heart Church, a German immigrant parish in Pomeroy, Ohio, a small mining town on the Ohio River.

Father Jessing found that a number of orphaned boys in his parish had no one to care for them. Realizing that an orphanage was needed, he, undaunted by lack of funds, found a way to raise the money necessary to build an orphanage. Relying on his fellow German immigrants for support, he began a German-language newspaper, The Ohio, in 1873; Father Jessing was the sole journalist and publisher. Circulation increased rapidly, and the name soon changed to the Ohio Waisenfreund (Ohio Orphan's Friend). He used the newspaper as a fund raising organ but also to provide much needed religious instruction for his German-speaking readers. Jessing’s paper met with great success and soon became one of the most widely read German language publications in the United States.

Dedicated in May 1875, Saint Joseph Orphanage provided a home and education to orphan boys from the surrounding area. In 1877, Father Jessing moved the orphanage to Columbus, Ohio, to a campus at 18th and Main Streets. As the boys grew older, four of them expressed the desire to study for the priesthood. Remembering the burdens and obstacles he encountered on his journey to the priesthood, Father Jessing wanted to give boys who were without financial means a way to answer their calling. In the July 4, 1888, issue of the Ohio Waisenfreund, he announced that he would educate two additional boys for the priesthood, if he could find suitable candidates. Twenty-three boys from 11 states responded and asked to be received. Not knowing how he would provide for so many, Father Jessing nevertheless accepted them all, and thus, on September 1, 1888, began the College Josephinum, named in honor of his patron, Saint Joseph.

Four years later, to ensure that his seminary would serve the whole nation, Father Jessing asked Pope Leo XIII to accept the ownership of the seminary as a pontifical institution. The request was granted on December 12, 1892. Thus, the Josephinum came directly under the authority of the Holy See and became the Pontifical College Josephinum.

On June 5, 1894, the College was incorporated under the laws of the State of Ohio; and on June 14, 1894, it was chartered as a degree-issuing institution.

In recognition of Father Jessing’s dedication to the Church, Pope Leo XIII made him a Domestic Prelate with the title of Monsignor in 1896. Monsignor Jessing died on November 2, 1899, a champion of the poor, dedicated to higher education, the priesthood and service to God.

For the first few decades of its existence, the Josephinum focused its efforts on educating priests to work among German-speaking Catholics throughout the United States. After World War I, that focus shifted to preparing priests for missionary areas of the country and for dioceses lacking their own seminaries.

From its original campus on East Main Street in downtown Columbus, the Josephinum was relocated in 1931 to its present site on the banks of Olentangy River, north of Worthington. Nestled in 75 acres of woods, the Josephinum was eventually comprised of four main buildings devoted to educational and administrative purposes and two auxiliary buildings that contribute to the service of the college.

The main building of the new complex was dedicated in 1931 to house administrative offices, faculty living quarters, dining rooms, an auditorium, guest rooms, and Saint Turibius Chapel. The south wing of the main building originally housed the major seminary (seminarians spent six years in theology and philosophy studies). In the north wing, the minor seminarians lived and studied during high school and the first two years of college.

In the 1950s, largely for reasons of accreditation, the organization of the seminary was changed from the 6 year/6 year arrangement (minor seminary/major seminary) to a 4 year/4 year (high school/college/theology) arrangement. A separate college building was erected for those middle four years; it was dedicated in June 1958. It stands to the west of the theology seminarians’ residence and houses living quarters for college seminarians, the college chapel of Saint Pius X, and classrooms.
The recreation building was also dedicated in June 1958; it is to the north of the college building and features a variety of indoor recreation facilities as well as the Monsignor Leonard J. Fick Auditorium.

The building on the east side of campus near the front entrance of the seminary was built in 1938. This building served as the library of the Josephinum until 1982, when the facility became known as the A.T. Wehrle Memorial Library. At that time, it was relocated in the old minor seminary (north) wing, now known as the Pope Saint John Paul II Center for Priestly Formation. Today, along with the Wehrle Library, the building also houses faculty offices and classrooms for the School of Theology.

The old library building was renovated in 1997 and became the Monsignor Joseph Jessing Center – the site of two adjoining conference rooms and a small meeting room, providing much-needed space for activities including academic and theological symposia, lectures, and conferences.

Since 1970, special emphasis has been placed on preparing priests to work among Hispanic Americans. In recent years, the Josephinum has received a number of candidates from Asia, Africa, and Eastern Europe to be educated for service in their native lands.

Since 1899, when six of the original 23 seminarians were ordained, hundreds of priests have received their theological education at the Josephinum. In addition, the Josephinum is proud to count among its alumni thousands of Catholic lay persons who have studied in its high school, college, or theological programs.

CAMPUS FACILITIES AND LOCATION

The Josephinum’s landmark campus, crowned by its majestic 200 foot tower, is located in a 75-acre setting on the east bank of the Olentangy River.

The Administration Building complex houses administrative and faculty offices, priest faculty living quarters, seminarian and faculty dining rooms, an auditorium, guest rooms, and the beautiful Saint Turibius Chapel, where the combined communities of the College and Theologate celebrate liturgy on Sundays and major feasts.

The south wing of the main building complex is the Theology seminarians’ residence. It houses living quarters for Pre-Theology and Theology seminarians, Saint Joseph Chapel, seminarian lounges, recreation facilities, and the seminarian pub. Each seminarian has a private room furnished with basic furniture and Wi-Fi. Computer stations are available for seminarian use on a local network with Internet access.

The College Building houses living quarters for College seminarians, the Saint Pius X Chapel, classrooms, the computer center, health center, and recreation facilities.

The Recreation Building features a variety of indoor sports facilities, including a swimming pool, weight room, basketball courts, and bowling alley. The Monsignor Leonard J. Fick Auditorium, with a seating capacity of 534, forms part of the same structure.

For outdoor recreation, there are several tennis courts, handball courts, and athletic fields for softball, baseball, soccer, and football. Paths for hiking along the Olentangy River and through the woods are found at the west end of campus. The mile-long drive on the property provides a safe place for walking or running. Facilities for racquetball, golf, roller-skating, and ice-skating are available in the vicinity. Three ski areas are located within an hour’s drive of the campus.

An active intramural sports program includes football, softball, and basketball. The Josephinum basketball team plays in tournaments, at home and away, with other seminary teams from a five-state area. The Josephinum hosts a basketball tournament and a soccer tournament in which other seminaries participate. Other activities, such as movie nights, pub socials, canoe trips, and picnics are often organized by seminarian government or other campus committees.

The Pope Saint John Paul II Center for Priestly Formation houses faculty offices, seminar rooms, classrooms for the School of Theology, the Writing Center, and the A.T. Wehrle Memorial Library.

The A.T. Wehrle Memorial Library is located in a spacious and inviting facility, overseen by professional and support staff, and provides the Josephinum community with services and resources to advance the human, intellectual, pastoral, and spiritual dimensions of formation.

The extensive collection includes print holdings in the humanities with an emphasis in theology and philosophy. The fields of biblical studies, patrology, theology, liturgy, Church history, and philosophy are emphasized while the areas of canon law, spirituality, pastoral ministry, and the arts are strongly represented. The library benefits from its membership in Ohio Private Academic Libraries (OPAL), a consortium of 27 libraries, and OhioLINK, a statewide consortium of Ohio university and college libraries, and the State Library of Ohio. The holdings from these academic institutions are easily reserved for delivery and checkout to members of the Josephinum community.

The library provides access to a core collection of subscription databases for the study of philosophy and theology including Atla Religion Database with AtlaSerials, The Philosopher’s Index with full text, and selected modules of JSTOR. Through OPAL and OhioLINK memberships, the Josephinum community also has access to an array of specialized subject databases and an extensive collection of electronic journals and eBooks. All electronic resources are accessible on campus via the wireless network and from off-campus with authentication.

The library is home to the Monsignor Anthony A. Kleinschmidt and Monsignor Gerald Durst Special Collections that includes rare books, incunabula, institutional publications and special collections.

The Monsignor Joseph Jessing Center is located on the east side of the campus, and is a state-of-the-art facility reflective of the tradition and spirit of the Josephinum. It houses two adjoining conference rooms and a small meeting room, providing space for supportive activities, including academic and theological symposiums, lectures, and conferences.

THE CITY OF COLUMBUS

The Josephinum is located in Columbus, the capital of Ohio since 1812 and a diocesan see city since 1868. Columbus is easily accessible, a hub for numerous airlines, and a junction of two important interstate highways.

Since 1931, the seminary has been situated 11 miles north of downtown Columbus, just north of the suburb of Worthington. Interstate 270, which encircles the city, is close by and makes for easy access to the Columbus freeway system, and to the parishes, hospitals, schools, nursing homes and other sites where seminarians gain pastoral experience.

The Columbus metropolitan area offers many cultural attractions; seminarians are encouraged to attend off-campus lectures, forums, seminars, plays, operas, and films. Student rates are available at many galleries and theaters in Columbus. Educational institutions, which afford many such programs, include The Ohio State University, Capital University, Franklin University, Ohio Wesleyan University, Ohio Dominican University, and Otterbein College. All are within an easy drive of the seminary.
